A note from the Managing Directors

SAM THACKERAY

Dear valued customer,

Those of you who are familiar with our portfolio will spot four brand new additions to the ranks of our producers this year. Susana Balbo, Bodegas Martín Códax, Frescobaldi and Teusner come from far-flung corners of the winemaking world, and each brings something very special to a portfolio already brimming with venerable names.

Yet again, huge congratulations to our energetic and passionate Buying team who have brought these producers on board with absolutely impeccable timing.

Take Bodegas Martín Códax, for example. The winery has been setting the tone for Rías Baixas since 1986, and indeed, were integral to the recognition of the new DO in 1988. They have funnelled years of expertise into becoming pioneers of Albariño, including sparkling, late harvest and orange wine expressions. Introducing these wines to the UK market a mere five years ago would have been madness, but we believe that today is a very different story: we saw on trade demand for Albariño wines skyrocket by 81% in 2021.

This is a characteristic of the wine trade that we find endlessly fascinating: winemakers' scope for innovation constantly takes us by surprise, and coupled with the bottom-up trends emerging from hospitality, this is a fast-paced environment. We've found ourselves wondering recently, what would Enotria's founder, Remo Nardone, think of today's portfolio if you could show it to him back in 1972? Many of the appellations and styles had not even been invented.

Ultimately, it is you, our valued customers, who believe in this change, embrace it and are at the forefront of introducing it to UK consumers. We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for placing your faith in the integrity of our portfolio, for trusting in the people who make up our business, and for supporting the change we are trying to drive in delivering exemplary service and operational excellence to the industry.

“ Heading into Enotria’s 50th anniversary, we find ourselves reflecting on how far the portfolio has come, and the enormity of change in the drinks industry at large. ”

Thank you, and we wish you all the best for a successful year ahead,

Sam Thackeray and Ants Rixon

Arnaldo Caprai

Umbria, Italy | Founded in 1971

In 1971, Arnaldo Caprai made a radical career change. He was an established textiles merchant, but threw it all in for 5 hectares of land in Umbria that captured his imagination. Over the next 17 years, he slowly acquired more vineyards until he passed over the reins to his son, Marco Caprai, in 1988. In the 1990s, Marco partnered with the University of Milan and invested heavily in cutting-edge scientific and technological research, that culminated in the discovery of new clones of the Sagrantino grape that is indigenous to Umbria. Caprai is now recognised as the most established and significant producer of Sagrantino di Montefalco, made from 100% Sagrantino grapes. Marco's passion for science continues to manifest itself in his rigorous approach to sustainability, including detailed reporting on CO2 emissions and increasing vineyard biodiversity.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Caprai stands for an impassioned defence of the local and specialised. In a world where the gradual of international grape varieties can sometimes feel inevitable, we are incredibly proud to represent producers like Caprai who have championed the indigenous grapes that are unique to their terroir.

Donato D'Angelo

Basilicata, Italy | Founded in 2001

Husband-and-wife duo, Donato D'Angelo and Filomena Ruppi, acquired 20 hectares of vineyards in 2001 and set out to consistently high-quality wines. The vineyards they acquired were planted with 80% Aglianico, together with some Cabernet Sauvignon and Fiano.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

The volcanic soils of Mount Vulture are compounded by its unique location as Italy's easternmost volcanic centre, and the highest point in the southeast of Italy's Apennine range.

Although made from the Aglianico grape, that can also be found widely across Puglia and Campania, the unique climate in Basilicata gives it an expression more akin to Nebbiolo, at least in terms of structure and capacity to age.

Marco Felluga

Friuli-Venezia Giulia, Italy | Founded in 1956

The Felluga family has deep roots in the winemaking world of Istria back to the 19th century. One after another, generations of the Felluga family moved anti-clockwise around the peninsula in pursuit of a better wine market: first from Istria to the island of Grado, then further inland to Gradisca d'Isonzo. Having established his eponymous winery in 1956, Marco Felluga then noticed a nearby estate called Russiz Superiore in 1967. He was captivated by its 700-years' worth of history, and the incredible potential of the sites. Today, Marco Felluga still works alongside his granddaughter Ilaria to create these benchmark wines in the Collio region. Following the untimely death of Ilaria's father, Roberto, in 2021, Ilaria is continuing his legacy, particularly as a pioneer of sustainability in the region.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Enotria's portfolio has historically had strong links to North Eastern Italy, but the Marco Felluga range brings a new breath of life to the portfolio on our 50th anniversary. This region offers connoisseurs of Italy top-quality wines to discover at good value.

Rob Dolan

Yarra Valley, Australia | Founded in 2011

After 25 years of winemaking for other wineries, Rob Dolan decided to channel his expertise and passion into his own venture in 2011, when he opened a cellar door, vineyard and winery in Yarra Valley. Rob believes that the best wines are dependent on the best fruit, and has built relationships with the region's best growers to become a specialist in cool-climate Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Cabernet Sauvignon. Partnering with growers has also give Rob the flexibility to experiment with parcels of less typical varietals like Marsanne, Arneis, Sangiovese, Tempranillo and Barbera. No matter the grape, Rob's wines have a distinctively "less is more" approach.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Yarra Valley is one of Australia's most interesting winegrowing regions, and the addition of Rob Dolan to the E&C portfolio represents our first producer from this region. As sky-rocketing prices of Burgundy are driving up demand for cool-climate Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, these wines will receive a warm welcome in the UK.

About the winemaker

Rob Dolan grew up in Riverland South Australia with the family nickname, 'Riesling' because he loved enjoying a glass of wine with his mother. For a long while, wine was a passion as Rob pursued a career in Aussie Rules Football. Then with two premierships to his name, Rob hung up the boots and moved to Hunter Valley to earn his stripes as a winemaker. Moving to Yarra Ridge in the 1990s, Rob was inextricably linked to establishing the region's reputation with two highly successful brands, Sticks and Punt Road. This pioneering Midas touch earned him the new nickname 'Mr Yarra Ridge', reinforced by the accolade of James Halliday's 'Newcomer of the Year Award 2014'.

Serra Ferdinandea

Sicily, Italy | Founded in 2020

Serra Ferdinandea is named after a volcanic island that suddenly emerged from the sea in the Strait of Sicily in July 1831 as a result of a series of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. Both the French and Sicilian navies immediately noticed this new island and fought fiercely over it for the next four months until it sank back under the sea surface just as suddenly as it had appeared. Almost two centuries later, the winery Serra Ferdinandea is a collaboration between the Sicilian Planeta family and the Oddos of Provence. The three wines in this wine are all blends of indigenous Sicilian varieties and classic French varieties, vinified through shared ideas and experience from these two great families.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

This fully biodynamic and natural range of wines is fully committed to sustainability, and aligns perfectly with E&C's own Sustainability Charter. The collaboration between two families from Sicily and Provence is a wonderful expression of the knowledge sharing, supra-national zeitgeist.

Domaine Sigalas

Santorini, Greece | Founded in 1991

Paris Sigalas came from a family of grape growers and winemakers, like many on Santorini. He grew up deeply familiar with Santorini's entirely unique pruning systems, developed to protect grapes from the howling Meltemi wind that tears across the island from May to October. But unlike others, Paris applied maths and technology to develop his own winemaking philosophy, best described as "the dynamic evolution of tradition". The Sigalas winery is on the northernmost tip of Santorini, on the plain of Oia. Sigalas owns a number of vineyards on the plain of Oia, but also has a series of strong partnerships with independent grape growers around the island. This allows them to capitalise on the enormous breadth of terroirs on the island, and also to stabilise supply in such a challenging climate from one year to the next.

WHAT DOES THIS ADD TO OUR PORTFOLIO?

Domaine Sigalas incontestably makes the best wines on Santorini, and we are incredibly proud to add this world-class winery to our portfolio. Now owned by Stelios Boutaris, whose family founded Kir-Yianni on the Greek mainland, the precise and experienced winemaking elevates Assyrtiko, so often seen as a workhorse grape, to Chablis-esque levels of sophistication.

What will be the trends for Iberian wine in 2022?

On the whole, the UK is moving towards more fruit-forward and lighter styles of wine. This has worked in favour of Spanish Garnacha and Albariño. In fact, demand for Albariño far outstrips supply, which is why I'm delighted to welcome Martín Códax to the fold.

Climatically, Spain is very compatible with organic and biodynamic winemaking. Good to know if you need a go-to country to keep eco-conscious consumers happy.

A few of our producers were recently featured in the Old Vines Conference. What's going on in this space?

It's a fabulous initiative driven by some of the UK's top wine critics, encouraging growers not to grub up old vines but to champion them instead. These old vines are less productive, but the fruit is notoriously more complex and concentrated in its flavour profile. Technically, vines over 35 years are considered "old", but many growers in Spain are working with vines over 100 years of age. Look at Capitel from Ossian, made from vines over 200 years old.

A few others to explore are Sierra Cantabria, Verum, Ken Forrester, Humberto Canale and De Martino.

Sergio De Luca

Buying Director (Italy)

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Hi Sergio, we're celebrating the introduction of the Frescobaldi range to the E&C portfolio. Frescobaldi combines 600 years of history with an innovative approach that challenges preconceptions.

Yes, I'm very proud that E&C is now the UK importer for this fantastic producer. The Frescobaldi estate is a reference point for Tuscan wines. Across their eight wine estates, they are able to fully represent the diversity of Tuscany's terroir.

Can you give us an example of a wine in the Frescobaldi range that embodies all our stereotypes of Tuscany?

I think the Chianti Rufina Riserva from Castello di Nipozzano embodies traditional Tuscan winemaking. Its modern production values still have an incredibly close link to the terroir, and this is a very classic expression of the appellation and of the Sangiovese variety. Compare this to the Chianti Classico from Campomaggio or Brancaia.

Can you give us an example of a wine in the Frescobaldi range that defies all expectations and does something new?

Castello di Pomino is relatively unknown, even in Italy. Its white wines are on a par with top tier North Eastern Italian whites, like Colterenzio's Pinot Blanc.

Rebecca Gergely

Buyer (France)

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Hi Rebecca, which French producers are you most looking forward to visiting in 2022?

I am really looking forward to visiting the new producers we introduced to the E&C portfolio in 2021: Aubert & Mathieu from Languedoc-Roussillon and Château La Gaffelière in Saint-Émilion. Both of them have had great launches, and very positive reception from our customers. It will be great to get to know them better, and plan what we can do with them in the UK market.

Which French producer has been in the E&C portfolio the longest?

Château du Poyet (in Muscadet Sèvre et Maine) and Olivier Tricon (in Chablis) were both listed in 1989.

Who are the top French producers in our portfolio who are doing something really exciting around sustainability?

Domaine Cazes, Aubert & Mathieu (both Languedoc-Roussillon) and Maison Sinnae (Rhône). Cazes is Europe's largest biodynamic winery and they are very proactive in promoting biodiversity throughout the vineyards. Aubert & Mathieu use an eco-glass that generates half the carbon emissions of regular glass. Sinnae are forward-thinking in CSR and have made commitments to promoting local heritage and ensuring employees' wellbeing.

Richard Lewis

Buyer (Other Europe, Champagne, Eastern Mediterranean, North America)

Hi Rich, with E&C's big anniversary this year, is there any similar producer news we should be looking out for?

Stag's Leap Wine Cellars produced their first ever vintage in 1972: the inaugural S.L.V. Cabernet Sauvignon. The land had mostly been plum trees only a few short years before but the wine would soon become a legend.

Château Ste. Michelle's Cold Creek Vineyard was also first planted in 1972, and continues to produce one of Washington's most acclaimed and expressive Cabernet Sauvignons.

As UK consumers are becoming more adventurous, what would you recommend by way of indigenous grape varieties?

Furmint from Hungary is an amazing variety: lightly aromatic with subtle spiciness and lots of freshness. It can successfully make wines in a range of styles, from unoaked to serious barrel-fermented examples. Kadarka is also from Hungary, making beautifully light and spicy red wines similar to Pinot Noir. Check out Sauska for examples of both.

Assyrtiko, Greece's crisp white variety, continues to ride high and provides an exciting alternative to Chablis. Kir-Yianni is great to try.

Emma Robinson

Buyer (New Zealand, Australia, South Africa)

What are your top three favourite wines in the portfolio right now?

Hi Emma; welcome to Enotria&Coe's Buying team! How are you settling into your new role?

I've recently had 6 months off for maternity leave so it's a big change both personally and professionally. I'm very excited to get going.

You've been seconded to Buying from the London Sales team. Which customers did you look after?

I was in the Central London Sales Team looking after a huge variety of customers, from Michelin star restaurants to gastro pubs. This included some groups like D&D London, Caprice and Gordon Ramsay, as well as smaller independently owned restaurants.

Why did you want to make the jump into Buying from Sales?

Buying has been on the radar for me for a while now and ultimately it was where I wanted to end up. I will always have a massive respect for any salesperson in the industry as I know how hard the job is.

Look out for more Q&A with Emma on the E&C Blog soon.

Champagne & Sparkling

As we start a new decade, the popularity of fizz shows no sign of slowing and here at Enotria&Coe we continue to embrace this trend with delight, from sparkling to Champagne.

While the UK's love of Prosecco continues to flourish, Cava is also gaining the recognition it deserves.

Champagne

Our carefully curated list of Champagne producers features those that we feel deserve a place on every list.

Each showcasing the terroir of the village from which they hail, our agency Champagnes are the result of individuality, style and craft. Our range spans from household names to the lesser known, emerging Champagne houses.

Champagne

Gobillard

If you're after the true heart of Champagne, then look no further. The Gobillard family lives mere metres from the grave of Dom Pérignon, and following decades of hard work, have secured 26 hectares of vines, much of which is Premier Cru that was once owned by the Benedictine Hautvillers Abbey. A handful of carefully selected growers tend to a further 125 hectares nestled in the most prestigious crus, yielding a range of Champagnes that accentuate brightness, minerality and elegance over power and richness.

Champagne Jacquart

Housed in the opulent 19th century Hôtel de Brimont, on the Boulevard Lundy in Reims, Champagne Jacquart is kept in good company, with fellow Champagne producers Krug and Roederer among its neighbours. As well as enabling winemaker Floriane to pick the best fruit for wines such as their cuvée de prestige, Alpha, and the house's benchmark Blanc de Blancs, the many growers and vineyards supplying Jacquart also guarantee consistency and quality for the core non-vintage cuvée, Brut Mosaïque.

Maison Telmont

Maison Telmont was founded in 1912 by Henri Lhôpital, who was inspired by the Champagne riots of 1910 to establish a Champagne house that would espouse the values of quality that he believed were under threat. Since then, the Champagne house has been handed down through four generations of the family, always staying true to crafting wines "in the name of Mother Nature". They live by three core values: humility, courage and loyalty, and are a driving force in the region for respecting biodiversity, adopting renewable energy sources, and eco-design. They are questioning all touchpoints between their wines and the environment by abolishing superfluous packaging, and using only 100% recyclable green glass. In 2017, some of Telmont's plots received organic certification, and has committed to certifying all estate vines by 2025.

Pol Roger has been producing exceptional Champagne for over 160 years.

To its credit, the house remains small, family-owned, fiercely independent and unrivalled in its reputation for quality. Indeed, it's this quality which led to Sir Winston Churchill's lifelong attachment to Pol Roger, who famously insisted, "In defeat I need it, in victory I deserve it".

Since its founding in 1743, Moët & Chandon has been passing down unrivalled winemaking savoir-faire and an innovative, pioneering spirit from generation to generation. Claude Moët was the first person to embody these values when he made his Champagne the most sought-after in Europe. The 1,190 hectares of rich limestone soil – 50% of which is classed as Grand Cru and 25% Premier Cru – today make up the largest vineyard area in Champagne.

Veuve Clicquot is undoubtedly one of the best known and most recognisable of all Champagne marques. Founded in 1772, the house was built on the formidable reputation of the widow Clicquot, who managed the business for most of the 19th century. The vibrant orange label has become a hallmark of consistency and Champagne of the highest quality.

Ruinart

Way back in 1729, Nicolas Ruinart, a Reims draper like his father, started his first account ledger devoted to "wine with bubbles". This ledger serves as the birth certificate for the first Champagne House ever created. Since its inception, Champagne Ruinart has taken pride in the excellence of its cuvées. Interestingly, the unique shape of its bottle pays tribute to the historic bottles of the eighteenth century.

Krug

Krug may well be part of the Louis Vuitton-Moët Hennessy group, and incorporated into the Veuve Clicquot company; however, it is still a family run business. Since 1843, when the firm was established in Germany, Krug has been producing oak-fermented wines, a practice that adds complexity, finesse and richness. Long ageing on the yeast, strict selection of grapes, and a unique father-to-son winemaking tradition all help to create the quality that makes Krug so highly regarded.

Perrier-Jouët

Ever vigilant to the changing tastes of its customer, Perrier-Jouët has a remarkable history of innovation. In 1854, it became the first-ever producer of dry Champagne, and they were the first House to release 'millésimes' or 'vintage' Champagne. A few years down the track, in 1858, it was also the first House to state the 'cru,' or village name, and the year of the harvest on the cork, and then on the label itself by the 1860s.

Champagne Laurent-Perrier

Situated in Tours-sur-Marne, just outside Reims, Laurent-Perrier is one of France's most respected Grande Marque Champagnes. Their rosé is one of the rare Champagnes made exclusively from Pinot Noir, by the traditional method. Laurent-Perrier is now managed the two daughters of Bernard de Nonancourt who catapulted the House to global fame. Alongside Cellar Master Michel Fauconnet, Alexandra and Stéphanie have continued to established this as one of the region's largest producers. Grand Siècle is unique as a prestige cuvée in that it is always a blend of three declared vintages. Laurent-Perrier shies away from vintage styles because they believe that skilful assemblage can achieve better wines than purely relying on vintage conditions.

Lanson

When Jean-Baptiste Lanson took the helm of the Champagne house, the company prospered and exports grew, particularly in Great Britain, where Lanson was awarded the Royal Warrant by Queen Victoria in 1900 - an honour it has retained to this day. Early on in the company's history, the classically crisp house style was established when the family made the decision to vinify its wines without malolactic fermentation. This, combined with extended ageing in their cellars before release, contributes to what can best be described as beautifully complex and rewarding wines.

Louis Roederer

Made by one of the very last family-owned large houses with their own grapes, from 214 hectares of fully-owned vineyards, Roederer is arguably one of the most reliable non-vintage Champagnes of them all. The toasty house style is a result of the decision to age for three years on lees with reserve wines.

Sparkling

Beyond the borders of Champagne, there's a wealth of sparkling alternatives and we're proud to offer an eclectic selection, with differing emphasis on fruitiness, bubble size, and methods of production.

As well as Prosecco and Cava, we're also celebrating the burgeoning category of English fizz with an outstanding selection of home-grown wines, as well as some more unusual offerings from across the globe.

French Sparkling

Burgundy

Veuve Ambal

The association of widows or 'veuves' and sparkling wine extends beyond Champagne, south into Burgundy where Veuve Ambal, the leading producer of Crémant de Bourgogne, is based. Marie Ambal married a Parisian banker and, when he died, returned to her home village of Rully in Côte Chalonnaise to continue her family involvement in wine. Today, Veuve Ambal has 230 hectares of vineyards in Burgundy and is one of the most pristine wineries in the region.

Sylvain Gaudron

The Gaudron family – fourth generation Gilles Gaudron is currently at the helm – have been making wine in Vouvray, Vernou since 1890, farming a 27-hectare vineyard, two-thirds of it with an average age of 30 years. The cellars date back to the 13th century, with 1km of galleries burrowed deep into the rock. These are classy wines, superb vehicles for Loire Chenin Blancs – all racy fresh with a fine, chalky minerality.

Château Leoube

Lord and Lady Bamford, a pioneering family driving positive sustainable change in the UK, acquired the 17th century Château in 1997, marking a new beginning for Léoube.

The family vision was to bring their passion and their experience for sustainability and organics to fine winemaking. The responsibility of expanding the vineyards and improving quality has been given to Romain Ott, fourth generation winemaker of the Ott dynasty. A policy of zero use of pesticides and chemicals is crucial to preserving biodiversity and therefore taking care of wildlife, leading to a strengthened and stable ecosystem. Certified Organic, the Léoube estate is an entirely protected environment where natural wet areas support and develop biodiversity. All the waste materials are carefully recycled or upcycled.

Terre di Sant' Alberto

Terre di Sant'Alberto consists of ten hectares of manually worked hillside vineyards in the heart of Valdobbiadene, overlooked by a small chapel dedicated to Saint Albert. One of the peculiarities of this chapel is that it used to house a "Sator Square" i.e. an ancient plaque on the wall with the Latin inscription:

O P E R A
R O T A S

This can be read backwards, rotated, and upside down, which is handy, because it is also printed just above the front labels. Nobody really knows what it means, but it is probably an early-Christian symbol relating to ploughing and farming, God and nature, which will probably make a lot of sense once you have finished the bottle.

Contratto

The Contratto cellars were carved into the limestone underneath the winery and the vineyards in the 1860s. The labyrinthine cellars are now recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage site, while the winery is famous as a pioneer of non-Champagne sparkling wines. Their Moscato and Asti sparkling wines, made in the Champagne method, were incredibly popular worldwide at the beginning of the 20th century. These historic export agreements are the reason behind the “For England” label on the Blanc de Noir Pas Dosé to this day.

Since the Rivetti family bought Contratto in 2011, they have employed their signature elan to take Contratto to new heights. They have invested in new vineyards, particularly focusing on high altitude plantings of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

Fontanafredda

Fontanafredda’s history is peppered with tales of intrigue surrounding the Italian Royal family, but it is in the sympathetic hands of Oscar Farinetti, founder of the Eataly chain of Slow Food restaurants, that the winery has found its true fame. Under Farinetti, Fontanafredda’s revival looks assured and this sleeping beauty of the Langhe – its vineyards are among the finest in the area – is now on a clear upward trajectory. It’s a winery that combines this great history – Fontanafredda used to have its own bakery and school, and still preserves a great sense of community – with thoroughly modern production facilities for everything from Asti to Barolo.

Hattingley Valley

A family-owned business in the heart of Hampshire, Hattingley Valley have been winning international acclaim and awards ever since their first vintage in 2013. Their English wine project began in 2008 and has developed into a custom-built, eco-friendly winery, farming some 24 hectares of vines across two separate sites. The first winery in the UK to adopt solar power, Hattingley Valley is recognised as a top estate abroad, and looks to be gaining just as much recognition across its native land.

Court Garden

Court Garden is a family-run, single-estate vineyard and winery in East Sussex, set on a beautiful south-facing slope with the South Downs as a backdrop. The passionate English producer's wines are all handcrafted using traditional grape varieties and bottle fermentation, where long ageing on the lees adds to the complexity of the flavour.

Lyme Bay

With an increasing demand for premium quality English wines, our buying team set out to source a producer with a range of wines with provenance we could be proud of. Which is where Lyme Bay Winery comes into the picture. Everything the Devon-based producer does is inspired by tradition, however it's not afraid to push the envelope and make the most of modern production techniques. These award-winning wines are fruit-forward and pure, with quintessentially English flavours.

Chaffey Bros. Wine Co.

This is the exciting new face of winemaking in Australia. Established in 2008 by brothers-in-law Daniel Chaffey Hartwig and Theo Engela, Chaffey Bros champion Riesling, Shiraz and Grenache from Eden and Barossa Valleys. Working in the realm of minimal intervention, artisan, small-batch wines, the pair prioritise experimentation and quality. Dan and Theo share a love for the sometimes brutal, remote landscapes of Barossa and Eden Valleys, which also boast a rich tapestry of passionate communities.

From once humble beginnings, family-owned d'Arenberg have grown to gain cult status amongst imbibers and judges alike for their enviable range of wines. A deft combination of winemaking tradition and vinous innovation might be a tall order for some, but it's one that d'Arenberg have taken in their stride as they continue to push industry boundaries, getting under the skin of each individual vineyard they own to get the best from their grapes.

When a company calls one of its wines 'Ladies Who Shoot Their Lunch', you know you're experiencing a wine story that's just a bit, well, different. Matt Fowles – self-taught hunter, chef, winemaker and jazz trumpet player – was an unfulfilled lawyer before buying a winery out of administration and creating Fowles Wine. Food-friendly wines are Fowles' focus, with their products specifically designed to be consumed with game.

Ken Forrester Wines

Without the efforts of industrious men like Ken Forrester, South African Chenin Blanc might be scarcely more than a footnote to the country's winemaking history – a workhorse grape, producing vast amounts of unmemorable white wine. Thankfully, this Zambia-born former restaurateur saw beyond the grape's obvious quaffability, going on to produce wines such as The FMC that have not only elevated the varietal to world renown, but resulted in their creator being bestowed the moniker 'Mr Chenin'.

The story of Santa Ana is defined by constant evolution and development, from the winery's foundation by Italian émigré and winemaking pioneer Luis Tirasso in 1891, to the company's leadership in the Argentinian market in the late 1970s, and its exploration of overseas destinations in the years since. Today, its wines are sold in more than 50 countries around the world, and the secret of Santa Ana's success lies firmly in the vineyards. Owing to extraordinarily challenging growing conditions across France in 2021, France experienced historically low grape yields. Please see Enotria&Coe's 2021 Vintage Report to find out more. As a result of this, we have received dramatically smaller allocations of a number of wines. Please speak to your Account Manager to find out more about allocations for specific wines you might be interested in.

As the global landscape of wine grows more diverse and competitive by the day, France continues to evolve and develop as an undisputed producer of some of the world's greatest wines.

With international demand for Bordeaux and Burgundy showing no sign of diminishing, sourcing value in these regions becomes increasingly complex, but it's a treasure hunt that we relish.

Estates from the Loire, Alsace and along the length of the Rhône also feature heavily, alongside an intriguing selection of producers in the sun-hued south-west, and clustered around the sparkling Mediterranean.

Sheltered by the densely forested Vosges Mountains, Alsace is celebrated for its aromatic white wines.

Unlike Germany, the winemaking philosophy here is to ferment all the grape sugar into alcohol, resulting in dry, full-bodied wines. There is no better expression of this than the wines from the world-renowned Trimbach.

Alsace

F. E. Trimbach

Thirteen generations after Jean Trimbach was recognised as a citizen of Riquewihr, the Trimbach family still carries the baton on viticulture and winemaking. Since their roots in 1626, the Trimbach style has evolved thanks to the unique Alsatian microclimate. Benefitting from a mosaic of terroirs along a geological faultline and shielded on either side by the Vosges Mountains and the Black Forest, Trimbach's vines in Ribeauvillé mature fully but are vinified to bone-dryness for maximum structure, longevity, elegance and food-friendliness. After acquiring the Clos Ste Hune vineyard over 200 years ago, the eponymous wine was rapidly recognised as a benchmark expression of Alsatian Riesling. In the 1960s, the family decided to dedicate a new wine, the Cuvée Frédéric Emile to their ancestor who had revolutionised the winery and moved its centre of production from Riquewihr to Ribeauvillé.

Maison Joseph Drouhin

Maison Joseph Drouhin has accrued five generations of experience since it was established in 1880. The family is continuously dedicated to tradition and respect for Burgundy's deep heritage. Nonetheless, the winery was one of the first in the region to experiment with organic production, with all vineyards officially being certified organic from 2009. The 80 hectares are spread across the most prestigious appellations of the region, including the famous Beaune Clos des Mouches, that Maurice Drouhin (son of the founder, Joseph) had to painstakingly buy plot by plot from the many neighbours who had owned it previously. Today, siblings Frédéric, Laurent, Philippe and Véronique share management responsibilities and each contribute their unique expertise to maintain excellence in all areas of operations.

Domaine Louis Michel

That classic tasting note for benchmark, premium Chablis – precise, linear, with the scent of sea-washed shingle – could have been composed with the wines of Louis Michel in mind. ## Bernard Defaix

After speaking to Didier and Hélène Defaix for just five minutes, you start to realise what makes their wines so special. Not only do they have holdings in some of Chablis' best-situated vineyards, their attention to detail in vine growing and winemaking is astounding. Their focus has been on taking care of the vineyard through improving soil structure, biological pest control and painstaking vegetation management; their cellar work is similarly precise. All this enables the potential of each 'terroir' to fully express itself through fine, powerful and distinguished wines, which have a succulence of texture married to serious intensity of flavour that makes them delicious young, yet also capable of considerable cellaring.

Château de la Maltroye

By Burgundian standards the Château de la Maltroye is a baby. The superb 18th century château with its 15th century cellars was purchased by the Cournot family in 1940. Current owner and winemaker, Jean-Pierre Cournot, is an inimitable host and remains restlessly involved with the domaine, which today covers around 15 hectares – large for a private domaine, but useful, Jean-Pierre points out, in handling the shift in fashion for planting Pinot Noir in the area.

A decade ago, brothers Alain and Jean-Louis Chavy split their family estate (Domaine Gérard Chavy) down the middle, with each brother receiving 6.5 hectares of prime Puligny-Montrachet vineyard. Gilles Bouton excels in producing white Burgundy of elegance and a real sense of place, at particularly reasonable prices. Gilles inherited less than four hectares from his grandfather in 1977 and has expanded to eight since then, renting and cultivating an additional six. ## Jean-Michel Gaunoux

Jean-Michel Gaunoux has brought an extraordinary energy and zealous enthusiasm to the seven-hectare estate he took over in 1990. Focused around Meursault, he also owns vineyards in Puligny, Volnay and Pommard. Jean-Michel's Meursaults are classically rich and opulent, with fresh balancing acidity. Jean-Michel is one of our few suppliers to keep back a proportion of his production every year in order to be able to offer older vintages when the wines are fully mature.

Crémant de Bourgogne

Veuve Ambal

The association of widows or 'veuves' and sparkling wine extends beyond Champagne, south into Burgundy where Veuve Ambal, the leading producer of Crémant de Bourgogne, is established. Marie Ambal married a Parisian banker and, when he died, returned to her home village of Rully in Côte Chalonnaise and to pursue her family involvement in wine. Today, Veuve Ambal has 230 hectares of vineyards in Burgundy and is one of the most pristine wineries in the region.

Côte Chalonnaise

Domaine Michel Juillot

Mercrey and the Côte Chalonnaise run through the veins of the Juillot family, whose domaine of more than 30 hectares is one of the most respected in the area – praised for wines that champion fruit and fresh elegance over exoticism and extraction.

There's evidence that the Juillots were tilling the vineyards of Mercrey as long ago as 1404, and Louis Juillot – great-grandfather of current manager Laurent – planted the first vines after the phylloxera catastrophe.

Mâconnais

Saumaize-Michelin

Domaine Saumaize-Michelin is located at the foot of the dramatic Roche de Vergisson, seven kilometres west of the town of Mâcon. Owners Roger and Christine Saumaize took on the domaine in 1978, and have been dedicated to caring for the health of the soil and vines ever since. A faithful practice of organic viticulture, followed for 20 years, has combined perfectly with their attention to detail to result in beautiful wines, faithful to their origin.

Domaine Ferret

In 1840, the Ferret family established this 18-hectare estate, which is located at the heart of the most famous 'climats' of the Fuissé amphitheatre. Renowned for 'parcel by parcel' vinification pioneered by Madame Ferret, today this tradition is carried on by winemaker Audrey Baccini. At Domaine Ferret, they are driven by the belief that in order to make a great wine, one needs, above all, to respect one's heritage. Add to this a tailor-made approach to viticulture, and you've got a collection of truly sublime, complex wines.

Vignerons des Terres Secrètes

Vignerons des Terres Secrètes, or 'winegrowers from the Secret Lands,' is a group of producers from southern Burgundy. Located in the Mâconnais, they produce excellent wines from the best terroirs of the rolling, sun-washed landscape of the Mâconnais region. Vignerons des Terres Secrètes are certified 'Vignerons engagés,' which is a French sustainable wine growing certification governed by the following guidelines: protection of the environment; a recycling scheme; a quality traceability scheme from the vine to the glass; and ensuring producers are paid fairly. 'Vignerons Engagés' also supports local initiatives including the refurbishment of old buildings, to protect the region's history and legacy.

One of the few winemaking regions in the world to focus on a single grape variety, the vineyards in Beaujolais are planted almost entirely with Gamay, the grape from which Beaujolais's signature style is produced.

With light, vibrant and fruity reds combining refreshing acidity, fruit-driven flavours and low tannins, Beaujolais offers a vast contrast to the heavy, tannic styles of the surrounding regions. Propelling Beaujolais into public awareness and popularity, the region is also home to the now-famed Beaujolais Nouveau; a tradition that offers an early-release style bottled a mere 6-8 weeks after harvest and with no ageing at all.

Beaujolais

Domaine Chermette

Pierre and Martine Chermette are producers of serious Beaujolais. They avoid the ubiquitous use of cultured yeasts and chaptalisation, believing that character comes from ripe grapes and local yeasts. Consequently, the wines are a revelation, showing what the Gamay grape is truly capable of when handled with respect. All the wines from this excellent estate are bottled without filtration.

A region producing more fine wine than any other, Bordeaux is renowned for some of the world's most sought-after bottles; offering white and dessert wines as well as reds.

From the sun-drenched terraces of medieval Saint-Émilion to the glacial gravel of Médoc, Bordeaux encompasses a multitude of terroirs and microclimates, and this is reflected in the region's vast array of wine styles.

Bordeaux

Lucien Lurton

François Lurton is part of the famous Bordeaux classified growth owners family. Son of André Lurton (Château La Louvière), François represents the 5th generation of Bordeaux's Lurton family, and with a very entrepreneurial spirit was one of the first to make wines outside of Bordeaux. Today he owns and runs five different estates across the world: Languedoc-Roussillon with Mas Janeil, Spain, Portugal, Chile and Argentina, François Lurton has a unique perspective on the world of winemaking with his brand Fumées Blanches, an exceptional range of French varietal wines.

Sainte-Marie owner Stéphane Dupuch's determination and superb results stand out against the ocean of indifferent Entre-Deux-Mers whites and Bordeaux Supérieur reds that are produced in the region. Since the property has been in Stéphane's hands, he and his wife have raised the standards enormously. In a region of varied soils, the focus is to plant vine varieties in the places that will bring out the best qualities in their fruit, fully allowing the grapes to express the inherent, subtle qualities of their terroir.

Graves

Château des Gravières

A small château in the Graves appellation of Bordeaux, Merlot-dominated where usually Cabernet Sauvignon is king, Château des Gravières makes wines that satisfy both the palate and the pocket. The Labuzan family, who continue to own and run the winery today, with brothers Thierry and Denis at the helm, are part of a long line of wine specialists, their first Labuzan vines being planted as far back as 1847. Today, despite a continued focus on Merlot, the winery has expanded into growing Cabernet Sauvignon, Sémillon and Sauvignon Blanc varietals.

Margaux

Château d'Issan

Château d'Issan - Margaux Third Growth from the 1855 Bordeaux classification - is reported to have been served at the marriage of Eleanor d'Aquitaine and Henry Plantagenet during the Middle Ages. There are records of Château d'Issan being kept in the cellars of The Prince of Wales during the 18th Century, and in the late 19th Century the Emperor Franz-Joseph of Austria thought so highly of this wine that he regularly served it at court. The Château's motto is "For the Tables of Kings and the Altars of Gods" – if you are looking for a claret with pedigree, you can't go far wrong with this timeless classic.

Pauillac

Château Grand-Puy Ducasse

Château Grand-Puy Ducasse is a Pauillac Fifth Growth from the 1855 Bordeaux classification. Until 1750, Grand-Puy meant a low, gravel hill with one single property. However, in the mid XVIII century, Pierre Ducasse bought a part of the Grand-Puy vineyard in Pauillac, which was then divided into 2 vineyards: Grand-Puy Ducasse and Grand-Puy Lacoste. Today, the Château Grand-Puy Ducasse vineyard is 40 hectares, divided between three main plots within the Pauillac appellation which neighbours first growth Pauillac estates. Planted in the sandy Garonne gravel, the vines have an average age of 25 years, with 62% of them Cabernet Sauvignon and 38% Merlot.

Château Phélan Ségur, in the iconic Bordeaux Saint-Estèphe appellation, had an origin a little different to the majority of French Châteaux; it was established by Bernard O'Phelan, a young Irish wine merchant, in the 19th century. Four families and two centuries of winemaking passion later, Château Phélan Ségur has created an identity based on elegance and finesse. Ancestral know-how, authenticity and ultimate respect of traditions are of the most importance to the team, who continue to craft quality wines today, within what they perceive as a 'living heritage.'

Château Rol Valentin

Château Rol Valentin is a newcomer to the Bordeaux wine scene, emerging as one of the new 'garagiste' styles that have sprung into the French wine world in the past ten years. Established in 1994 by Eric Prisette, a retired professional footballer, the winery produces only miniscule quantities of high quality wine, characterised by deep colours, intense concentrated and ripe fruits, with strong hints of new wood. The winery spans just five hectares of vineyards, located on the north-western part of Saint-Émilion plateau.

Situated in the village of Bué in the heart of Sancerre, this domaine was recommended to us by both Dominique Roger and Franck Millet. We are delighted by the recommendation – Christian Thiroit's white and rosé are classic expressions of cool-climate Sauvignon and Pinot Noir respectively.

Cave de Sancerre

Located at the heart of France's Loire region, Caves de Sancerre pride themselves on being champions of the flagship Loire Valley wine, Sancerre. Their vineyards stretch across 15 communes, covering a vast diversity of villages, each with their own individual soil type – the primary trio being comprised of 'terres blanches' (white earth), 'caillottes' (little stones), and siliceous clay. The range of flavours achieved by utilising grapes from these separate terroirs ensure that Caves de Sancerre are responsible for some of the best blends in the region.

Pouilly-Fumé

Alain Cailbourdin

Few illustrate the influence of 'terroir' more effectively than Alain Cailbourdin. This is achieved through a policy of short pruning, low yields, gentle pressing and controlled fermentations using indigenous yeasts, which results in wines of concentration, purity and intensity. The Cuvée de Boisfleury, from chalk vineyards with sand topsoil, is the most aromatic and immediate of his wines.

Château Favray

The well-established vineyards of Château Favray sit in an enviable position, south-facing, sun-filled and with a hillside location high above the Nohain river. This is quintessential Pouilly in a fresh, open and relatively fruit-forward style, helped by the presence of heat-reflective pebbles in the limestone soil. And yet, as recently as the beginning of the 1980s, this was farmland – until its potential became obvious to Quentin David when he inherited the land, converting it to 15 hectares of some of the finest Sauvignon Blanc territory to be found anywhere.

Touraine

Lionel Gosseaume

If wine is in the blood, it seems you just can't fight it. Lionel Gosseaume resisted until the age of 37, before giving in to the inevitable and taking on this small estate on the Touraine/Sologne border, between the Loire and its tributary, the Cher. Named after Lionel's father, Domaine de Pierre's vineyards date back to the late 19th century, the wines they produce having risen far above and beyond the Touraine norm.

Les Vignerons des Côteaux Romanais

Since 1957, this cooperative representing 20 growers has combined traditional practices with modern techniques to great effect. Grapes are gently pressed in a high-spec pneumatic press, before ageing in the traditional underground cellar carved out of the distinctive "tuffeau" (the local limestone that drives the style of the wines).

Muscadet

Jérémie Huchet

Sustainability and respect for terroir lie at the heart of Jérémie Huchet's winemaking practices. The winery spans four noted terroirs, each with individual traits that result in wines that are vastly different in some ways, but uniform in their level of quality. The whole winery has followed sustainable practices since 2001, and is well on its way to achieving organic certification; all the grapes produced are harvested from vines that have been entirely cultivated, ploughed and harvested through natural methods.

L'Écume

There can be no doubt that L'Écume is a champion of its appellation. Wines from the estate retain a strong loyalty to traditional production methods, and are crafted expertly from grapes grown on the left bank of the Loire, just upstream from Nantes. Here, volcanic rock combines with light, stony soil and good sun exposure to produce wonderfully alkaline and aromatic wines, characterised by a zesty freshness that have secured L'Écume's reputation throughout France.

Crémant de Loire

De Chanceny

De Chanceny is emblematic of know-how in producing fine, sparkling Loire wines, all crafted according to the Méthode Traditionnelle. Grapes are derived from selected clay-limestone, tufa chalk and shale terroirs to the south of the Saumur area, before undergoing rigorous and strict winemaking procedures to ensure that the wines produced are of the utmost quality, and fully representative of terroir.

Pithon-Paillé

A newcomer to the Loire, this is a family winery which was created in 2008 by Jo Pithon and his stepson, Joseph Paillé. The pair own a 13-hectare estate which is organically farmed and the wines are fermented using only natural yeasts. The wines are then aged for at least 10 months in French oak, allowing for micro-oxygenation.

Chinon

Domaine Pierre Sourdais

Pierre Sourdais has built a reputation for the consistently high quality of his Chinon. With a plethora of different soil types on his 25-hectare property from which to choose his fruit, Pierre is able to produce wines of great character year in, year out. The Chinon Tradition, recently certified organic, is soft and supple, with ripe tannins and an elegant finish – a classic expression of Cabernet Franc.

The Gaudron family – fourth generation Gilles Gaudron is currently at the helm – have been making wine in Vouvray, Vernou since 1890, farming a 27-hectare vineyard, two-thirds of it with an average age of 30 years. The cellars date back to the 13th century, with 1km of galleries burrowed deep into the rock. ## Saumur

Cave des Vignerons de Saumur

The Cave de Saumur is in the heart of the vineyards of Saumur-Champigny and was founded by local winegrowers in 1957. The Saumur Blanc La Cabriole is 100% Chenin Blanc and is best drunk young. The Cabriole red is 100% Cabernet Franc; harvested by hand in early October, the wine sees no wood and bottling usually takes place within six months of the vintage. There is also a very dry and refreshing Cabriole Rosé made from Cabernet Franc.

Saumur is famous for its wines but is also home to the world-renowned equestrian school - Le Cadre Noir De Saumur. La Cabriole is the classic dressage movement: elegance, harmony and lightness characterise this highly technical manoeuvre. Like the horse mastering the La Cabriole, these wines are light and agile with elegant structure and harmonious fruit flavours.

The birthplace of Syrah, with the first cultivated vines in the region planted around 600 BC, the Rhône's strength lies in the broad spectrum of choice and value on offer.

From Côtes du Rhône and Côtes du Ventoux at one end, to the twin summits of Châteauneuf-du-Pape and Côte-Rôtie at the other, the Rhône provides enviable variety and wines to suit any list at any price point.

Rhône

Northern Rhône

Domaine Yves Cuilleron

Having trained as a mechanic, Yves got bitten by the wine bug in the 1980s. So when his uncle retired in 1987, Yves jumped at the chance to run the family estate. At the time, Condrieu was relatively unknown, and Yves' perfectionist approach from vine-planting to wine bottling resulted in wines that were to grab the attention of both consumers and critics – making them hugely in-demand, and raising the profile of the appellation as a whole.

Before 1990 all the grapes from Combier's 13 hectares of vineyards were consigned to the local cooperative. However, when son Laurent Combier returned from oenology school, imbued with a vision of the heights that could be achieved with the estate's grapes, the family built a winery and began making its own wine. Today, the estate covers 19 hectares and the wines are considered amongst the very best of the appellation. All the wines from Combier are made from organically-grown grapes.

Domaine Gilles Robin

Gilles took over the running of this estate in 1996. With a history of winegrowing spanning four generations, his aim was to realise the potential of the then 25-year-old vines (50 years old in 2021). Using only natural fertilisers and reduced yields, he was able to develop a richer concentration of fruit and quality. A new winery was built into the ground to allow the wines to be moved delicately by gravity. Gilles' first vintage was so good that he won a gold medal at the Mâcon Fair, and his reputation has grown ever since, with accolades from industry heavyweights Decanter, Wine International, Robert Parker and Wine Spectator, just to name a few.

Southern Rhône

Domaine de la Janasse

More than 40 years after Aimé Sabon established Janasse at Courthézon, this iconoclastic young Turk of yesteryear is now established as one of the southern Rhône's finest wine estates, spanning some 80 hectares of vineyards. Now under the control of Christophe Sabon and his sister Isabelle, Janasse's much lauded Châteauneuf-du-Papes are a quintessentially modern interpretation of the vineyard's superlative raw material: deep colour, excellent fruit, supple tannins and extraordinary richness.

Domaine Chante Cigale

Domaine Chante Cigale is situated on the left bank of the Rhône, between Orange and Sorgues, on a variety of soils which contain a high proportion of 'galets.' These are the large stones of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, which heat up during the day and release their heat at night, allowing the grapes to achieve maximum ripeness. The red is powerful, with defined fruit characters and supple tannins. The white is fresh and attractive and an interesting alternative to ubiquitous Chardonnay.

Cellier des Princes

Cellier des Princes is a cooperative of 240 growers, founded in 1924. Under the guidance of oenologist Phillipe Cambie, it now enjoys a reputation as Châteauneuf-du-Pape's leading cooperative. For the duration of their contract, growers must have to dedicate 100% of their crop to the cooperative. Grapes from individual growers are assessed and compared for ripeness and sugar levels before vinification, which takes place in temperature-controlled, stainless steel tanks. Wines are aged in cement tanks.

Domaine Brusset

The broken crags of Les Dentelles de Montmirail form a dramatic, gap-toothed backdrop to some of the finest vineyards of Gigondas. Steeply terraced, low-yielding and back-breaking to work, they simply wouldn't be worth cultivating if they didn't produce great wine. Thankfully, in cuvées such as Laurent Brusset's Le Grand Montmirail and Les Hauts de Montmirail, these south-facing terraces prove all that trouble worthwhile. The presence of a decent amount of Mourvèdre in the Brusset vineyards also gives an understated power and backbone that goes beyond typical Gigondas.

The best way to find new gems in the Rhône Valley is to ask people in the region what they like to drink, and we were gladly given the name of Cécile Dusserre at Domaine de Montvac. Here, wine has been a woman's domain for the past three generations. In the vineyards, the emblematic Grenache grape is dominant and the terroir is the focus, with organic farming throughout the property. ### Maison Sinnae

Sinnae is the new brand identity of Laudun-Chusclan, which are two villages in the Southern Rhône, on the right bank of the Rhône river and close to Châteauneuf-du-Pape. With close to 250 growers, many of whom are young with a modern approach, they are also proud of their winemaking history, with winemaking dating back to Roman times. After a 12-year partnership, Laudun Chusclan is now one. They chose to pay tribute to their history by naming their collaboration Sinnae. During the Roman Empire, the villages of Laudun and Chusclan belonged to the Romans and the site today is an archaeological site called Caesars' Camp, where Julius Caesar fell in love with the Goddess Cornelia Sinnae. In ode to this passionate relationship between both Romans, Sinnae is also certified 'Vignerons engagés,' which is a French sustainable wine growing certification including the following guidelines: protection of the environment; a recycling scheme; a quality traceability scheme from the vine to the glass; ensuring producers are paid fairly; and support for local initiatives.

Previously overlooked for its reputation as a producer of underwhelming wines, today Provence continues to position itself at the helm of modern thinking and experimentation as the pioneer of dry, mineral-driven rosés with a characteristically light pink tint.

Boasting a winemaking history of over 2,600 years, Provence is the oldest wine-producing region in France, and the only place in the world with a research institute dedicated solely to the production of rosé and the improvement of the style which has made it so famous.

Château Leoubé

Lord and Lady Bamford, a pioneering family driving positive sustainable change in the UK, acquired the 17th century Château in 1997, marking a new beginning for Léoube.

The family vision was to bring their passion and their experience for sustainability and organics to fine winemaking. The responsibility of expanding the vineyards and improving quality has been given to Romain Ott, fourth generation winemaker of the Ott dynasty. A policy of zero use of pesticides and chemicals is crucial to preserving biodiversity and therefore taking care of wildlife, leading to a strengthened and stable ecosystem. Certified Organic, the Léoube estate is an entirely protected environment where natural wet areas support and develop biodiversity. All the waste materials are carefully recycled or upcycled.

Côtes de Provence

Château Sainte Marguerite

The amiable and very talented Jean-Pierre Fayard has built up one of Côtes de Provence's most dynamic and well-respected estates. He now owns 91 hectares of prime vineyard around the village of La Londe, much of which is Cru Classé rated, and all of which he tends using organic viticulture. The elegant, food-friendly rosés are made predominantly from Grenache, with differing proportions of Cinsault, Mourvèdre and Syrah. Château Sainte Marguerite wines are notably respected for their freshness and maritime influence due to the La Londe terroir facing the Mediterranean Sea.

Languedoc-Roussillon

Domaine Cazes

Emblematic French fortified wine estate Domaine Cazes is by far one of the most respected estates in Southern France. Founded by Michel Cazes in 1895, Domaine Cazes is located in Rivesaltes, in the heart of the Roussillon region - "The French Catalunya" - between the Pyrenees Mountains and the Mediterranean Sea. In 1997, 4th generation winemaker Emmanuel Cazes took over the estate from his father and initiated the organic and biodynamic conversion of all vineyards. Today, Domaine Cazes produces not only fortified wines such as Muscat de Rivesaltes, but has also acquired vineyards in different Roussillon appellations, including the recently created Clos des Paulilles in Collioure and Banyuls. Domaine Cazes is Europe's largest organic and biodynamic certified wine estate.

François Lurton

François Lurton is part of the famous Bordeaux classified growth owners family. Son of André Lurton (Château La Louvière), François represents the 5th generation of Bordeaux's Lurton family, and with a very entrepreneurial spirit was one of the first to make wines outside of Bordeaux. Today he owns and runs five different estates across the world: Languedoc-Roussillon with Mas Janeil, Spain, Portugal, Chile and Argentina, François Lurton has a unique perspective on the world of winemaking with his brand Fumées Blanches, an exceptional range of French varietal wines.

Aubert & Mathieu

Aubert & Mathieu is the story of two friends, Anthony Aubert and Jean-Charles Mathieu, who met at school. A few years later, they met up for a drink: Anthony was already in the wine trade and Jean-Charles was in corporate banking. Realising they shared an ambition to make wines their own way, in 2016, they launched Aubert & Mathieu. The first vintage was released in March 2019 and very successful on Paris' trendy restaurant scene. The Aubert et Mathieu identity is based on producing niche wines from the best terroirs of Languedoc-Roussillon while highlighting the nuances and singularities of each appellation. The DNA of their wines shows the perfect mastery of freshness, balance and the search for complexity. Inspiration, carefree and a little fantasy led them on their way! Aubert et Mathieu is also completely carbon neutral.

Picpoul de Pinet

Château Morin Langaran

The Morin family have been established winemakers for well over fifty years, but the Langaran estate where they craft their wines is a little older than that. Located near the Bassin de Thau, its existence can be dated back to 1330, when it belonged to the Order of the Knights of the Holy Spirit. After passing through many hands, it was where the Morin family started their winemaking prowess in 1966, and today is the base of production for a fantastic range of Vins de Pays and IGP Pays d'Oc wines.

Cave de L'Ormarine

The white Picpoul variety is grown throughout southern France, but has gained a particularly strong reputation for quality in one specific area in the Languedoc – Pinet. This small appellation is situated halfway between Béziers and Montpellier, the vine's tolerance to sandy soils making it a popular variety for the area's coastal vineyards. Picpoul translates as 'lip-stinger', a name which gives a clue to the lip-smacking high acidity of this variety – the fresh, crisp wines produced from the grape are an ideal accompaniment for the oysters sourced from nearby Étang de Thau.

Corbières

Château du Vieux Parc

The Cuvée Tradition Corbières has a lovely blend of dark ripe fruits with a supple, ripe tannin structure, and a reassuringly traditional château label, making it a brilliantly fruit-driven but nevertheless food-friendly wine. We recently added the Vin de Pays 'Les Amandiers' (meaning almond trees) to the range. This blend of Merlot, Grenache and Syrah may not be varietally labelled but more than makes up for this with moreish spun-sugar Grenache richness allied with a ripe Merlot body, Syrah structure and unbeatable value.

Anything but Ordinaire

La Lande

La Lande provides an impressive but affordable range; one of the best value ranges in our list. The white, from the relatively cool climate of the Comté Tolosan, is crisp and aromatic and is made from Colombard, one of the most successful varieties planted in the region. The red, made from a blend of Carignan and Grenache, is sourced from the warmer 'Hérault' region and is round and plummy with an attractive soft finish. Finally, the Cinsault rosé is fresh, light and eminently quaffable.

Founded in 1972 as a specialist Italian wine importer with just a handful of passionate suppliers, this is where it all began for Enotria.

In 2022, we continue to honour this heritage with an outstanding selection of wines sourced from all corners of the country. Italy offers great diversity of indigenous grape varieties and a long-standing tradition of winemaking, with our range from this complex country remaining enviable and extensive, providing the historic pedigree of Piemonte and Veneto, down through Tuscany and central Italy, to the thrill of the south. The classics of Chianti and Barolo have strong representation here, and are joined by distinctive wines from Sicily, Calabria and the Marche.

The climate and soils of this area mean that there is a notable bias towards white wines, however the output is still vastly diverse.

Alongside Soave and Valpolicella, Pinot Grigio and the ever-popular Prosecco also hail from this region.

Terre di Sant' Alberto

Terre di Sant'Alberto consists of ten hectares of manually worked hillside vineyard in the heart of Valdobbiadene, overlooked by a small chapel dedicated to Saint Albert. One of the peculiarities of this chapel is that it used to house a "Sator Square" i.e. an ancient plaque on the wall with the Latin inscription:

O P E R A
R O T A S

This can be read backwards, rotated, and upside down, which is handy, because it is also printed just above the front labels. Nobody really knows what it means, but it is probably an early-Christian symbol relating to ploughing and farming, God and nature, which will probably make a lot of sense once you have finished the bottle.

Vinicola Serena

Made from Glera, this delicate sparkling wine has notes of fresh crushed apples and a touch of lifted citrus character, making it a very quaffable wine to have cold, straight from the tap! La Serena Glera Frizzante's versatility and elegant flavours make it the ideal alternative to a bottle of Prosecco, especially for matching with food.

FIOL

Loosely translated, Fiol means 'cool boy' in the local Treviso dialect. This young and dynamic group of friends have great ambitions to help Prosecco become an even bigger phenomenon than it is today, along with a common passion for promoting Prosecco from their base in Treviso. This combination of international marketing expertise and wine heritage looks sure to put Fiol firmly on the map here in the UK.

Della Vite

This refreshing collaboration between the trio of famous It-girl Delevingne sisters and the Biasotto family with its deep roots in the Valdobbiadene region, heralds a new dawn for Prosecco. While popularity and volume of Prosecco has gone through the roof in recent years, this has been dominated by own-label bulk liquid. Della Vite joins the elite ranks of premium Prosecco producers, while also promising lifestyle branding opportunities and thorough eco-friendly credentials. Winemaking is both sustainable and vegan-friendly, and the winery is almost entirely powered by solar energy.

Casa Vinicola Botter

Casa Vinicola Botter was established in 1928 by Carlo Botter, in Fossalta di Piave, 30 kilometres North-East of Venice. Today, the winery is managed by third-generation cousins Annalisa and Luca Botter. More than 75 years on, tradition, family values, and wines of reliable quality, character and value remain at the heart of everything the Botter family does. Today, the company exports more than 90% of its production, and Botter wines can be found in more than 40 countries around the world.

Via Vai means 'comings and goings' and embodies a culture that celebrates those everyday special moments. The company was established in the nineties by the Furia Family in Valgatarà in the heart of the Veneto region, which stretches from the Dolomite mountains to the Adriatic sea. Over the years, it has rapidly developed, becoming one of the landmark producers for premium quality Prosecco. The resulting product is a lively, dry, crisp sparkling wine with delicate apple and citrus aromas. On the palate there are delicate lemon and floral flavours with a refreshing finish.

Verona

Accordini

This family-run domain extends over two sites in the heart of Valpolicella Classico; four hectares in Negrar and six of the highest hectares in the appellation, at 400 metres altitude, in Fumane. The wines are outstanding and the reputation of the Acinatico name is growing all the time. Modernity is balanced by earth and roses, so characteristic of the terroir. Best of all, the wines are accessible when young, so there is no need to wait to experience them.

Anselmi

Anselmi's 70-hectare winery is located on the highest slopes of Monteforte d'Alpone, a small town nestled in the hills of Verona. And it is from these breathtaking slopes that Roberto Anselmi continues to maintain his legendary status in Italian winemaking. This charismatic, motorbike-riding rebel's uncompromising quality-over-quantity approach has helped redefine the image of northern Italian wines.

Sartori

Back in the late 19th century, Pietro Sartori's trattoria was a bustling venue where Veronese merchants and industrialists would meet, do business, eat and, of course, drink. As a result of these comings and goings, Pietro needed to maintain ample supply of good Rosso Veronese, which led him to buying a vineyard in Negrar in 1898. It was here that the Sartori story began. Stretching the boundaries of Veronese wine, without sacrificing the grapes and local winemaking styles, these are bespoke wines for today's market.

Friuli-Venezia Giulia

Marco Felluga

The Felluga family has deep roots in the winemaking world of Istria back to the 19th century. One after another, generations of the Felluga family moved anti-clockwise around the peninsula in pursuit of a better wine market: first from Istria to the island of Grado, then further inland to Gradisca d'Isonzo. Today, Marco Felluga still works alongside his granddaughter Ilaria to create these benchmark wines in the Collio region. Following the untimely death of Ilaria's father, Roberto, in 2021, Ilaria is continuing his legacy, particularly as a pioneer of sustainability in the region.

Russiz Superiore

Having established his eponymous winery in 1956, Marco Felluga then noticed a nearby estate called Russiz Superiore in 1967. He was captivated by its 700-years' worth of history, and the incredible potential of the sites. The logo of Russiz Superiore is the double-headed eagle that was the emblem of the aristocratic Thurn-und-Taxis family that managed this estate for over seven centuries. These 50 hectares are on Italy's border with Slovenia, in the municipality of Capriva del Friuli, and effectively represent the Cru tier wines of the Marco Felluga winery.

Giovanni Puiatti

An innovator in his own right, Vittorio Puiatti developed what is now Italy's dominant winemaking technique for white wines, frequently called the "Metodo Puiatti." Only 100%stainless steel is used during both the fermentation and ageing of the wines. The winery is the first cellar in Friuli to be constructed using only steel, concrete and glass, reflecting his motto of 'Save a Tree, Drink Puiatti' – in other words, no oak is used in any of the wines.

Azienda Agricola Negro

Azienda Agricola Negro is an entirely family affair; parents Giovanni and Marisa have recruited the help of sons Gabriele, Angelo and Giuseppe to run the 48 hectare vineyard and winery, while daughter Emanuela takes care of sales and marketing. The whole family is united in a single focus for their estate: to produce the best wines they can, from their collection of impressive vineyards.

Cantine Giacomo Ascheri

Take the road north towards Barolo and, in viticultural terms at least, you're faced with a choice: left to the sterner, more powerful expression of the Nebbiolo grape; or right towards its gentler, more perfumed and elegant cousin, Dolcetto. As a winemaker, which do you choose? If you're the charming Matteo Ascheri, you don't – you have vineyards in both areas. The result is a bevy of Barolos that, when tasted together, illustrate the disarming diversity of this beautiful part of Piemonte.

Cantine Volpi

Founded in Tortona in 1914, Cantine Volpi is still family-run, with fourth generation Carlo Volpi now at the helm. With a long winemaking history, the Tortonese hills sit at the meeting point of Lombardy, Emilia Romagna and Liguria, and there is evidence of wine production as far back as 1198 with a grape press found in the local monastery. The Barbera and Cortese wines in this range are a reflection of the climate and the unique characteristics of the Tortona region.

Conterno Fantino

Conterno Fantino stands at the summit of 21st century Barolo, both literally and figuratively. From its stunning winery atop the Monforte d'Alba hill, this alliance of the Fantino and Conterno families produces a range of wines that are both unmistakably modern, also utterly respectful of the region's winegrowing heritage. That heritage is centred on vineyards that balance the need for Nebbiolo, with plantings of Barbera, Dolcetto, Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay.

E. Pira

Since 1990, this jewel of Barolo has been run by the energetic and multi-talented Chiara Boschis. Her mission? To add an aromatically elegant edge to the legendary power of these great wines. She has added vineyards in Monforte to the original estate, but the heart of E. Pira remains as it was in the days of the late Luigi Pira – just 2.5 hectares of vines in Barolo's prized enclaves of Cannubi, Cannubi San Lorenzo, and Via Nuova.

Fontanafredda

Fontanafredda's history is peppered with tales of intrigue surrounding the Italian Royal family, but it is in the sympathetic hands of Oscar Farinetti, founder of the Eataly chain of Slow Food restaurants, that the winery has found its true fame. Under Farinetti, Fontanafredda's revival looks assured and this sleeping beauty of the Langhe – its vineyards are among the finest in the area – is now on a clear upward trajectory. It's a winery that combines this great history – Fontanafredda used to have its own bakery and school, and still preserves a great sense of community – with thoroughly modern production facilities for everything from Asti to Barolo.

Nicola Bergaglio

Organics are meaningless as far as the Bergaglios are concerned; what matter are the numbers of swallows which come back each year to enjoy the insects which thrive in their vineyards on the old and healthy Cortese plants. Consequently, what can be achieved through hard work is important, and getting hold of the family is difficult: in the first week of December they were cutting down chestnut trees on their estate; then they cut the timber into shape; then they took some other timber which had been seasoned in the open for over a year and they used it to replace stakes in their vineyard. The Gavi di Gavi, La Minaia, bears testament to this. 'Minaia' means 'mine' and mines mean minerals; lots of lemony minerals.

La Spinetta

The Rivetti family are farmers through and through. Giorgio Rivetti (who also owns the Contratto winery) is a force to be reckoned with in the region, and starred in the 2014 documentary 'Barolo Boys' about the group of winemakers who tore up the rule book for winemaking in the 1980s and 90s and reshaped the identity of Barolo through technical innovation. This uncompromising pursuit of excellence earned La Spinetta the reputation as the heirs to the great Angelo Gaja.

Their bold labels feature the rhinoceros and lion by Renaissance artist Albrecht Dürer. These powerful creatures evoke La Spinetta's signature house style and philosophy, while also nodding to Dürer's virtuosic reinvention of the woodcut medium.

Contratto

The Contratto cellars were carved into the limestone underneath the winery and the vineyards in the 1860s. The labyrinthine cellars are now recognised as a UNESCO World Heritage site, while the winery is famous as a pioneer of non-Champagne sparkling wines. Their Moscato and Asti sparkling wines, made in the Champagne method, were incredibly popular worldwide at the beginning of the 20th century. These historic export agreements are the reason behind the "For England" label on the Blanc de Noir Pas Dosé to this day. Since the Rivetti family bought Contratto in 2011, they have employed their signature elan to take Contratto to new heights. They have invested in new vineyards, particularly focusing on high altitude plantings of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay.

Il Chiosso

In the dialect of Alto Piemonte, "il chiosso" refers to a vineyard that is enclosed by a stone wall, which demonstrates that the winemaker has identified the potential of this single site to create exceptional wines. That was precisely the mission of Marco Arlunno and Carlo Cambieri when they founded Il Chiosso in 2007. They both brought extensive winemaking experience in the region to the project: Marco as the producer of Ghemme, and Carlo as a vineyard owner and manager. In less than 15 years they have built up a reputation for Il Chiosso as one of the most compelling expressions of the Gattinara terroir, nurtured by a deeply traditional respect for nature.

We have selected two wines from Il Chiosso, which are Gattinara Galizja (their top cru) and Gattinara Riserva (which is only produced in exceptional vintages).

Rovellotti

The Rovellotti family has been making wine on a small scale in Alto Piemonte for over 600 years, handing down philosophies and techniques from one generation to the next. Over the years, they have modernised in line with developments in sustainability and technology. Rovellotti officially established its winery in 1972, coincidentally the same year that Enotria Winecellars was founded. The local council granted the family permission to locate their winery and cellar complex in the Ricetto Castle, around which lie the family's 25 hectares of vines. In the last 50 years, this producer has set the bar for the Ghemme appellation.

Liguria

Laura Aschero

The pioneering Laura Aschero estate is a tiny five-hectare dot on the map close to the French border, where the Ligurian Alps sweep down to the Mediterranean. Now in its third generation, Bianca is learning the traditions passed down from her grandmother in order to produce their unique Pigato, which is a local white variety redolent of rich fruit, pepper and minerals.

With its beautiful architecture, intoxicating landscape and iconic wines, Tuscany continues to flourish as one of the most romantic regions in Italy.

Wines such as Chianti have been produced here for over six centuries, and producers combine tradition with modernity to produce some of Italy's finest wines.

Maremma

Castellani

Since 1903, Castellani has been exporting its finest estate wines from Tuscany. Although the wines have changed and evolved over the decades, their philosophy has remained consistent, with a strong belief that the quality of the wine begins in the vineyards. So too has their primary aim and aspiration – to create memorable wines, reflective of the family's passion, investment in research and new cellar technologies.

Chianti

Cantine Leonardo Da Vinci

When Cantine Leonardo da Vinci was founded in the Chianti winegrowing village of Vinci, also the birthplace of the genius Leonardo, the winery covered just 70 hectares and 30 small winegrowers. Over the past 50 years, the cooperative has expanded to include 200 partners who cultivate 750 hectares in the Tuscan hillsides. Their approach to winemaking is to harmonise the new and old together, by blending centuries-old winemaking heritage with the most modern winemaking technique.

Casa Brancaia

Over Christmas of 1980, a Swiss family called the Widmers travelled to Tuscany and fell in love with a beautiful estate owned by an elderly English gentleman who was looking to sell. Incorporating what was historically two estates called Brancaia and Poppi, it is in the heart of Chianti Classico. The Widmers moved quickly and soon won their first award for the 1983 Chianti Classico. Their daughter, Barbara Widmer, took over as winemaker in 1998. This is also the year in which the Widmers acquire the Maremma estate, which is released as the Ilatraia in 2002, scoring 95 points in Wine International. Their top wine, Il Blu, quickly became a classic for Super-Tuscan fans around the world.

Montalcino

Fattoria dei Barbi

The Colombini family has been based in Montalcino since 1352, and established the Fattoria dei Barbi estate since 1790. Today, Stefano Colombini is the 20th generation of the family to own and manage the 306 hectares across Montalcino and Scansano. They were the first winemakers to export Brunello to the UK (with Enotria in 1972), France (in 1817), America (from 1962) and Asia (breaking into the Japanese market in the early 1980s). Barbi was also the first to open their cellars to the general public for tours and tastings in the 1950s. Their reputation today combines this colourful history with an enduring tradition for pioneering new approaches and technologies.

Il Poggione

High on its perch overlooking the lush Maremma, Tenuta Il Poggione has become synonymous with top quality Brunello for more than a century. Its dramatic scenery proved irresistible to Florentine landowner Lavinio Franceschi in the late 19th century, drawn to the area by the tales of a local shepherd whose sheep spent the summer months on the sunlit slopes between Montalcino and Sant'Angelo. Now in the capable hands of fifth-generation owners L & L Franceschi, Il Poggione has about 125 hectares of the finest Brunello vineyards going, and a 10-year-old winery that combines modern equipment with a traditional approach, not least in the large French oak barrels so vital to the development of its classic Brunello and Rosso di Montalcino.

Montepulciano

Poliziano

Since its foundation in 1961, Poliziano has swiftly established a reputation as one of Italy's leading producers of Montepulciano. The winery's story taps into the history and culture of this picture-postcard corner of Tuscany. The name Poliziano is a tribute to the 15th century scholar Angelo Ambrogini, tutor to the children of the Medici. His 'nickname,' Poliziano, is a simple reference to his birthplace – Montepulciano was originally Mons Politianus in Latin. And why Asinone? The vineyard gets its name from its shape, said to resemble the back of a mule.

Frescobaldi

The Frescobaldi family moved to Italy in the 11th century and rapidly built their fortune in textiles and infrastructure. They are part and parcel of the history and architecture of Florence, as they were directly responsible for the building of a number of major landmarks in the city. As their estate grew, they expanded into winemaking in the 14th century, and the business is still run by a combination of the 29th and 30th generations of the family. Today, their vision is to exalt the diversity of Tuscany's terroirs, which they achieve through a portfolio of eight very different wineries.

Umbria

Arnaldo Caprai

In 1971, Arnaldo Caprai made a radical career change. He was an established textiles merchant, but threw it all in for 5 hectares of land in Umbria that captured his imagination. Over the next 17 years, he slowly acquired more vineyards until he passed over the reins to his son, Marco Caprai, in 1988. In the 1990s, Marco partnered with the University of Milan and invested heavily in cutting-edge scientific and technological research, that culminated in the discovery of new clones of the Sagrantino grape that is indigenous to Umbria. Caprai is now recognised as the most established and significant producer of Sagrantino di Montefalco, made from 100% Sagrantino grapes. Marco's passion for science continues to manifest itself in his rigorous approach to sustainability, including detailed reporting on CO2 emissions and increasing vineyard biodiversity.

Sometimes overlooked, central Italy is home to some of Italy's most fertile agricultural land and its wines are some of the country's most popular.

Crafting wines which are approachable, interesting and diverse, it is an area which experiments in the rediscovery of little-known indigenous grape varieties, as well as ongoing research and development to evolve wine styles and production techniques.

Marche

Fazi Battaglia

Fazi Battaglia prides itself on belonging to a brand that inherently conjures up an image of pure Italian identity and culture. Created in 1949 in a small cellar, the winery spent decades investing in improvements in the vineyards and focusing specifically on a single grape varietal, Verdicchio. These choices were far ahead of their time, and resulted in Fazi Battaglia's ascension to pioneers within the Marche, and the ultimate champions of Verdicchio within Italy.

Emilia Romagna

Cantina Cleto Chiarli

Modena – the home of Ferrari and Maserati, of Pavarotti and Acetico Balsamico – is also the home of Lambrusco. From the day in 1860 when Cleto Chiarli shut the doors of his Osteria dell'Artigliere to concentrate all his efforts on winemaking, the Chiarli name has been tied to this great – and much misunderstood – wine style. Chiarli's expertise in everything from wine quality to marketing – its innovative bottle, label and cork were much admired as long ago as 1900 – sparked a revolution in selling Lambrusco.

Bosco Nestore

Giovanni Bosco began growing vines in 1897 and then passed on the winery to his son Nestore. The wines had gained a local reputation for the intense perfume and spiced palate, but it was the recognition of the Montepulciano d'Abruzzo DOC in 1968 that propelled the international reputation of Bosco's wines. As the coveted slopes of Pescara became saturated with vineyards, the Bosco family expanded inland and focused their production on only the highest quality fruit. In the 1980s, the third and fourth generations of the family built a new winery in Nocciano. Wines are matured in a combination of large barrels of Slovenian oak, new barriques and in bottle.

Italy's 'boot' enjoys geographical and climatic diversity, from the mountains of Campania to the rocky shores of Puglia.

The styles of wine produced are as diverse as the topography: pure, aromatic whites from Avellino; the robust reds of Menfi; and the intense sweet wines of Noto. Sicily's mountainous terrain with lean soil, intense summer heat and scarce rainfall makes it ideal for viticulture, enjoying a hot ripening season tempered by elevated vineyards.

Basilicata

Donato D'Angelo

Husband-and-wife duo, Donato D'Angelo and Filomena Ruppi, acquired 20 hectares of vineyards in 2001 and set out to consistently high-quality wines. The vineyards they acquired were planted with 80% Aglianico, together with some Cabernet Sauvignon and Fiano. The volcanic soils of Mount Vulture are compounded by its unique location as Italy's easternmost volcanic centre, and the highest point in the southeast of Italy's Apennine range. Although made from the Aglianico grape, that can also be found widely across Puglia and Campania, the unique climate in Basilicata gives it an expression more akin to Nebbiolo, at least in terms of structure and capacity to age.

Antonio Caggiano

The Caggiano winery is based in the town of Taurasi, the heartland of Aglianico, which is the main focus of their production. Antonio Caggiano, the founder of the winery, designed one of the wineries himself - the most spectacular of its time in Campania. Today, thousands of bottles are laid down in its galleries - which are made of the local "tufo" stone - giving the sturdy Aglianico time to soften and develop the deep crimson hues and intense fruit flavours it's best known for.

Puglia

Boheme

Primitivo, a native varietal of Puglia, in the heel of Italy's boot, is derived from the Latin Primativus meaning 'early to ripen' - it's no surprise then that it's one of the first red grapes to be harvested in Southern Italy. Thanks to modern winemaking, this grape has been elevated from a humble quaffing wine to a delicious, jammy and moreish style, whose quality belies its price tag. A hugely popular red for casual dining lists.

Despite the harsh and rocky soil, the land is resplendent with vineyards and olive groves, and was once called by King Federico II 'a garden of earthly delights.' Here, Botromagno has 75 hectares of vineyards where Primitivo thrives on the hot plains, producing rich wines full of character. Interestingly, Botromagno are the only producers of the historic Gravina Bianco grape.

Sicily

Planeta

In Planeta's early years, expertise came from a surprising source: Australia. The winemaker brought in by Diego Planeta was an Italian, Carlo Corino, who had soaked up the latest warm-climate winemaking secrets during a stint in New South Wales. Ever since, Planeta has adopted world-leading winemaking techniques to capture the perfume and freshness of Sicily in their wines. The early success of their now cult-status Chardonnay gave Planeta the platform to introduce a few of the region's indigenous grape varieties to the winemaking world. Today, Planeta is as revered for its role in promoting Grecanico and Nero d'Avola wines as it is for the signature Chardonnay.

Serra Ferdinandea

Serra Ferdinandea is named after a volcanic island that suddenly emerged from the sea in the Strait of Sicily in July 1831 as a result of a series of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions. Both the French and Sicilian navies immediately noticed this new island and fought fiercely over it for the next four months until it sank back under the sea surface just as suddenly as it had appeared. Almost two centuries later, the winery Serra Ferdinandea is a collaboration between the Sicilian Planeta family and the Oddos of Provence. The three wines in this wine are all blends of indigenous Sicilian varieties and classic French varieties, vinified through shared ideas and experience from these two great families. The collaboration between two families from Sicily and Provence is a wonderful expression of the knowledge sharing, supra-national zeitgeist.

Sardinia

Santadi

It sometimes helps to think of Sulcis, in south-western Sardinia, as Sardinia's Yorkshire (but with better weather), a coal-mining region where the coal mines have been shut by government decree. For the people of Sulcis, alternative employment came either through migration – it's said that if you look in any Italian restaurant kitchen in London you'll find at least one Sardinian working there – or through grape-growing. Local producer Santadi is of the latter group, with the company's dozens of growers producing wines prized throughout Italy for their suppleness and refinement. They don't tend to promote this however – Sardinians are often unassuming and, by Italian standards, even introverted – but these Carignano and Vermentino wines are suffused with distinctive character, and are a perfectly pitched combination of warmth and freshness.

From the established heartlands of Rioja and Ribera del Duero to the rejuvenated regions of La Mancha and Jumilla, and from Catalunya in the East to Galicia in the West, our Spanish portfolio is a powerhouse of wines that are fierce in character and have a strong sense of place.

Paired with a selection from sunny Mallorca and historic Jerez, it's a collection that's hard to beat.

Protected by both the Pyrenees and the Cordillera Cantábrica mountains, North Central Spain covers a vast area of land, with most vineyards sitting high up on the Meseta and illustrating high elevation viticulture at its very best.

Spicy reds from Rioja, powerful Tempranillo from Ribera del Duero and herbaceous Verdejo from Rueda remain firm favourites, while historical Navarra and quirkier Toro, where tradition meets innovation, offer a testament to new wave Spanish wine.

Rioja

Ramón Bilbao

Established in 1924 and based in Haro, Ramón Bilbao has 180 vineyards spread across Rioja. Today, it is the fastest growing winery in the region and has firmly established itself as one of Spain's most exciting and innovative producers. The jewel of the star-studded range is the Crianza, which holds the spot as the most popular Rioja Crianza in the Spanish on trade. Born and bred in the region, chief winemaker Rodolfo Bastida is a man who likes to push the boundaries and believes the future lies in trial and exploration.

Lalomba

Lalomba is a single vineyard collection by Ramón Bilbao, launched in 2020. The Lalomba winery is in Haro, adjacent to Ramón Bilbao, but has its own team, facilities and identity. Lalomba still carries the Ramón Bilbao DNA of research and experimentation, exemplified by the use of rough concrete fermentation vats, and rigorous selection of different sized barrels made from both French and Hungarian oak. This range captures the distinctive character of the complementary terroirs of Rioja with Finca Valhonta (on the terraces of Villalba de Rioja in Rioja Alta), and both Finca Ladero and Finca Lalinde (on the stark hillsides of the Sierra de Yerga in Rioja Oriental).

Sierra Cantabria

Nestled between the foot of the Sierra that gives the winery its name "Sierra Cantabria" at 1200m, and the Ebro River at 350m, sits the town San Vicente de la Sonsierra, a town of great winemaking tradition. Sierra Cantabria is a much-lauded family-owned producer who crafts wines of freshness, elegance and poise. Six generations of obsessive attention to detail and deep respect for the land has earned them a loyal following.

Viñedos Sierra Cantabria

The Eguren family has been making outstanding Rioja since 1870, and the Viñedos Sierra Cantabria is their more contemporary brand. 19 carefully selected vineyards in Sonsierra and Alavesa across 65 hectares make the backbone of their estate, and back up the family's mantra that, "above all, we are grape growers". Today, brothers Marcos and Miguel implement the accrued knowledge of five generations of their family, and cut no corners in the vineyard. Grapes are hand-selected to account for microclimates at different altitudes (from the River Ebro at 350m to the Sierra Cantabria mountain range at 1,200m).

Señorio de San Vicente

A pioneer in Rioja, Señorío de San Vicente was the first single vineyard, single winery, single wine operation. Led by Marcos Eguren, one of Spain's greatest winemakers, the winery uses an elegant and nearly extinct variant of Tempranillo, called Tempranillo Peludo (Hairy Tempranillo). With the first vintage in 1992, Señorío de San Vicente moved to French oak in recent vintages for a more modern profile (90% French, 10% American), with the wine aged for 20 months.

Vintae

In Vintae, we're proud to have a one-of-a-kind, revolutionary producer – restless, creative and sometimes rebellious, with projects in over 15 DOs. The heart of their winemaking heritage lies in Rioja, Bodega Classica, specifically in the historic village of San Vicente de la Sonsierra. The Riojan Sonsierra is an area located on the south side of the Cantabrian Mountain Range and the Toloño mountains, which protects it from cold winds and humidity.

Ribera del Duero

Pago de Carraovejas

The new top tier estate of Spain, the Alma Carraovejas group champion the best of different regions across the peninsula. From the classic Pago de Carraovejas in Ribera del Duero, to the cult Verdejos of Ossian in Nieva, to Galicia's stunning Emilio Rojo O Gran Mein they are pushing the quality of Spanish wines to new heights. Drawing on advice from legends including Rafael Palacios and Javier Ausas (of Vega Sicilia fame), the reins for Pago de Carraovejas have now passed to three formidable women: Patricia Benitez (Pingus/Vega Sicilia with two 100 point vintages), Almudena Calvo (Spain's top Winemaker 2019) and Laura Montero (Alvaro Palacios, Peter Sisseck). The trio is continually investing in improvements to maintain their reputation.

Milsetentayseis

Patricia Benitez draws on her extensive experience to create this innovative expression of Ribera del Duero from the boutique winery of Milsetentayseis. The name is a reference to the winery's vertigo-inducing altitude: at 1076 metres, this is new territory Ribera del Duero. The unique terroir of Fuentenebro encourages a refreshing take on Tino Fino with a focus on elegance and subtlety.

Pago de los Capellanes

Upheld as the rising star on the Spanish scene over the past few decades, the landscape of Ribera del Duero is actually suffused with centuries of wine heritage – from gnarled Tinto Fino vines of venerable age, to the labyrinthine wine cellars that wind beneath the old cobbled streets of Aranda de Duero. Pago de los Capellanes may have all the modern bells and whistles - a recently-expanded vineyard and stunning winery facilities - but their history is rich and long, dating back to the 14th century.

Cruz de Alba

Cruz de Alba is a boutique winery located in the 'Golden Mile' of the Ribera del Duero, in Quintanilla de Onésimo (Valladolid, Spain), which started its own wine production in 2003. A standard-bearer of the expression par excellence of viticulture, Cruz de Alba is also an example of passion for oenology, respect for the local environment and balance. Its origins can be found in the Los Hoyales vineyard, a terroir in the heart of the 'Golden Mile'. The special characteristics of this plot are usually associated with fine, elegant wines, perfectly representative of the singular character of the vineyard, which has been consistently evident in wines since production began. Cruz de Alba is made in small quantities using the best Tinto Fino grapes, cultivated using agrohomoepathic treatments according to the biodynamic calendar, and harvested carefully by hand. Cruz de Alba: born from nature.

Abadía Retuerta

Abadía Retuerta was established near the village of Sardón de Duero in Castilla y León in 1996 with 210 hectares under vine. Each one of the 54 plots is planted with a single variety, best matched to the microclimate. Winemaker Pascal Delbeck (the owner of Château Ausone in Saint-Émilion) completely redesigned the winery around a gravity-flow system, so that grapes and wines would not need to be pumped around the facility. The 5,000 barrel capacity winery has been cut into the mountainside.

Bodegas Chivite

J. Chivite Family Estates is an illustrious family with one of the longest histories of winemaking in Spain. When Julian Chivite Lopez inherited the now renowned estate, he acquired eleven generations of experience to go with it. Convinced that the wine's future lay in the quest for excellence, he introduced sweeping improvements and innovations throughout the winery. His dogged commitment to quality was reflected in the wines themselves, which today are a benchmark for innovative, prestigious Spanish products.

Hailing from Cariñena DO, one of the three oldest denominations in Spain, CARE's state-of-the-art winery produces great value wines with beautiful labels designed by local artist Enrique Torrijos. The grapes are sourced solely from their own vineyards, with four separate estates dating back to 1948, all of which are situated 15km from the winery and at high altitudes. The wines have great balance of fruit and oak due to a much shorter ageing time, with the Crianza spending only eight months in barrel. CARE wines are certified vegan.

Rueda

Bodegas Shaya

Shaya was the realisation of Miguel Gil's dream to make authentic Verdejo wines from authentic vines. As such he set out in search of the finest pre-phyloxera vineyards he could set his hands on. In 2008 he made the first vintage but still didn't have a name. Just at that moment a local wildlife centre had rescued a small deer from his land and named it Shaya. Just as the rescue centre saw something worth saving in the striking deer, Miguel had seen the same in these old forgotten vineyards and as such, the name was born.

Nieva

Ossian

The mission of the Ossian project is to demonstrate the unique terroir and soils of Nieva. Located within the Rueda DO, these wines are nonetheless declassified to reflect the divergence of their geology and microclimate from the appellation's norm. Drier and warmer, but with cooler nights, the grapes ripen to perfection in these ancient sandy soils which are home to vineyards of more than 200 years old. The top wine, Capitel stands apart for its unique composition with some of the few deposits of slate penetrating the grey sand to yield an incredible minerality not normally associated with the region. A truly Burgundian and nuanced expression of this typical Spanish variety.

Enjoying warmth and sunshine, this region is home to some truly exciting estates producing high quality, terrific value wines with a modern twist.

We have some exceptional wines, from La Mancha across to Jumilla, where terroir is brought to life through a combination of talented winemaking and respect for these frequently challenging environments.

La Mancha

Bodegas Verum

Verum is one of the most exciting new names on the Spanish wine scene. Winemaker Elias Lopez is passionate about bringing back some of the lesser-known and almost extinct Spanish varieties. This is a single estate, organically cultivated, producing mono-varietals from classic and unusual grapes. Verum utilises some of the most ancient winemaking techniques paired with modern environmental philosophies.

Ramita

High up on the central plateau of the Iberian Peninsula, Castilla-La Mancha is the world's largest wine-producing region. Viña Albali make reduced alcohol wines with just 0.5% ABV. Packed with fresh fruit character and plenty of flavour, these are excellent examples of just how far technology and winemaking have progressed in the arena of low-alcohol wines. Increasing consumer interest in low-alcohol alternatives can now be met with options that don't compromise on flavour and provenance.

Valdepeñas

Alma de Vid

With a history dating back to 1850, Bodegas Fernando Castro is located in the heart of the Designation of Origin Valdepeñas, in Santa Cruz de Mudela. Nestled on the southern edge of the Iberian plateau and clearly defined by the plains of La Mancha to the north, the fields of Montiel to the east, those of Calatrava to the west and the Sierra Morena to the south, Santa Cruz de Mudela preserves the cultural and culinary traditions of La Mancha.

Jumilla

Juan Gil

Producing wine in Jumilla since the early 20th century, Juan Gil took a major leap forward when Miguel Gil, great-grandson of the company's founder, created a new bodega in 2003. The estate is dedicated to achieving powerful yet approachable wines, based predominantly on Monastrell, which constitutes 85% of plantings. Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Merlot and Petit Verdot make up the remaining 15%. The bodega owns over 500 hectares of vineyards and has access to additional fruit from 30 to 50 year old vines.

Alicante

Bodegas Monóvar

Bodegas Monóvar is one of Alicante's oldest wineries, and its flagship wine, Fondillón, has a history that stretches back over 500 years. It is a non-fortified, semi-sweet wine made in an oxidised style. In lieu of adding alcohol to fortify after fermentation, the wine is made from overripe Monastrell grapes from 80-year old vines. The wines are aged for 20 years in a priceless solera of 100-year old American oak barrels, that have been painstakingly collected by the Poveda family over the years. Today, Salvador Poveda is the winemaker, assisted by the legenday Raúl Pérez.

Also known as 'Green Spain', Galicia is a far cry from the hot, arid conditions often associated with Spain.

Instead, lush, foggy, and often wet climates prevail, providing perfect conditions for indigenous grapes Albariño, Treixadura and Godello, to thrive. Modern technology, specifically stainless-steel tanks introduced in the 1970s, have a lot to do with one of the most exciting products of Spanish winemaking: cool climate, mineral and elegant white wines from the north Atlantic coast.

Rias Baixas

Mar de Frades

Meaning 'Sea of the Friars' in Galician, Mar de Frades lies in the Arousa estuary, overlooking the Atlantic ocean. Proximity to cooling ocean breezes creates the characteristic freshness and aromatic intensity of the wines produced here, and the location is also reflected in the design of the winery; created to resemble a sailboat. Innovation is key at Mar de Frades, and their iconic blue bottle is designed to symbolise the modernity of Atlantic wines.

Bodegas Martín Códax

Bodegas Martín Códax is named after the medieval troubadour whose poetry is one of the oldest examples of Galician-Portuguese writing. His romantic poems are heavily imbued with coastal imagery, and today's winemakers share this passion for sharing their culture. In 30 years, the cooperative has grown from 50 grapegrowers to over 300 families. They were integral to the recognition of the Rías Baixas DO in 1988, and have been setting the benchmark ever since.

Ribeiro

Viña Mein Emilio Rojo

Emilio Rojo is widely regarded as Galicia's finest white wine. The 1.2 hectare vineyard is situated on the north-facing slope of Leiro in Ourense. The wine is a field blend of Treixadura, Loureiro, Lado, Godello, Caiño Blanco, Albariño and Torrontes grown on unique "sabrego" soils, which are meticulously maintained with organic viticultural practices. The Vina Mein wines come from the opposite side of the valley, from south-facing slopes barely a few kilometres away from Emilio Rojo. What these wines have in common is that all fruit is picked at optimum ripeness and fermented separately. At harvest, the winery is full of old oak, cement, glass and stainless steel vessels exploring the potential of microvinifications. This is artisanal winemaking at its finest.

Valdeorras

O Luar do Sil

After a 20-year tradition making red wines in Ribera del Duero with Pago de Los Capellanes, the natural restlessness of the Rodero Villa family carried them on to a new adventure in Valdeorras, Galicia. The name of the new estate, O Luar do Sil, means

'The Reflection of the Moon on the River Sil', alongside which vineyards cloak the steep terrain of the rugged valley. This specific location was chosen because the land here is unique: the granite and slate soils, together with the microclimate, have created the ideal conditions for artisanal viticulture. The wines produced in the region using the indigenous Godello grape are subtle, mineral and fresh, with complexity to evolve over the years.

Bierzo

Bodegas Cuatro Pasos

In 2003, the team behind Bodegas Martín Códax identified this parcel of Mencía vineyards in Bierzo. The vineyards are spread across Corullón, Valtuille, Hornija and Otero. The slate-rich soils encourage the varietal characteristics to shine through, together with a concentration of older vines at higher altitudes. The result is that these Mencía wines are longer-lasting with assertive freshness.

Terras do Cigarron

In addition to their main presence in Rias Baixas, Bodegas Martín Códax owns a couple of vineyards in Monterrei, which is a hinterland DO in Galicia, on the Northern Spanish border with Portugal. These vineyards are across the valley floor and up to 700m altitude. The diversity of microclimates is compounded by the variety of terroirs, allowing for experimentation with the Godello grape. These wines have exceptional structure and body, together with delightful aromatic complexity.

Getariako Txakolina

Adur

The vineyards of Txakoli occupy the north-west corner of the Spanish Basque Country. Hugging the Atlantic coastline in Getaria - the smallest region to produce this unique wine - is where Bordeaux-trained couple Maitena Barrero and Hector Gómez chose to set up and create their wine, Adur Txakolina. They work the vines to produce small yields - only 8000 bottles a year - to concentrate the Hondarribi Zuri grape in order to extract an intensity of aromas. It's a Txakoli with poise, weight and an insatiable salty tang.

Jerez

Bodegas Alonso

Brothers Fernando and Francisco Asencio set about rescuing some of Jerez's soon to be lost soleras. Bodegas Alonso, with the ancient soleras of Pedro Romero, Gaspar Florido and Fernando Mendez, is home to some exquisite sherries that are among the best in the world. All single barrel bottlings, there is a selection to choose from including Manzanilla, Amontillado, Oloroso and some spectacular Palo Cortados.

Xeco

Often overlooked and misunderstood as a tippie for older generations, sherry is in the midst of a renaissance thanks to its soaring popularity among hipsters. With a mission to make sherry accessible again, XECO is the brain-child of three 30-something Fino fiends who have set out to put a contemporary edge on an age-old product. To do so, they've joined forces with a magnificent Spanish sherry house that has been producing wines since 1876. Their flagship Fino is an utterly modern, refreshing introduction to the fortified wine, delicious served straight up or over ice with tonic or lemonade.

Bodegas Baron

The story of Bodegas Barón began in 1895 when Manuel Barón Fernández acquired a collection of old soleras in Sanlúcar de Barrameda in the southern Spanish region of Andalusia. More than 100 years later, they may be one of the oldest bodegas in the region, but they're still steadfastly committed to quality and innovation. The family-owned estate has invested in the future of sustainable development, and uses environmentally friendly products to guarantee quality across their portfolio. In 2014 Bodegas Barón embarked on a makeover of their entire range, and now with new avant-garde labels, they've set themselves on a trajectory of modernisation that will set them apart from their peers.

Bella Luna (Sanchez Romate)

Sherry has officially slipped off its “grandma slippers and housecoat” image, and the Bella Luna trio are perfectly poised to capitalise on that, paving the way for the modern sherry drinker. The wines are sourced from the extremely reputable Bodegas Sánchez Romate, one of the few remaining wineries in the Jerez DO which is still in the hands of local owners. For over 200 years, the firm has witnessed rare privileges: in 1909 they were appointed as Official Purveyors to the House of Lords, and shortly afterwards as Official Purveyors to the Sacred Apostolic Palace of the Vatican.

Harveys

Harveys was founded in Bristol in 1796 by merchant William Perry. Initially, the company imported a range of foreign wines, one of which was sherry. At the time, sherry was imported in oak casks, and subsequently blended and bottled in the UK. During the 19th century, Harveys became one of the largest importers of sherry from the Bay of Cadiz to the port of Bristol and remains one of the biggest international names in the category.

One of Spain's oldest sherry producers, Bodega Hidalgo is widely regarded as the country's definitive Manzanilla house. Traditions have been passed down from father to son through the generations, and now, sixth generation Javier Hidalgo is at the helm of the bodega. As the driest of all the sherry styles, with refreshing citrus and apple notes, La Gitana is the ultimate aperitif with salty Spanish tapas. ## Tio Pepe

In 1835 in Jerez, Spain, Manuel Maria Gonzalez, an ambitious 23 year old, set up the company that was ultimately to become Gonzalez Byass. Manuel was mentored in this by his uncle, José Ángel y Vargas, (affectionately known as Pepe), already a renowned authority on sherry and its production. Manuel gave his first cellar to his uncle so that he could continue his passion and make a sherry to his taste, which was at that time, not the norm. Later, Manuel sent a couple of barrels of his uncle's new, dry wine over to his London agent, one Robert Byass. The beautifully dry taste of José Angel's wine proved a great success and in 1849 Manuel named what is now the world's best-selling Fino after its creator, (tio being Spanish for uncle) – Tio Pepe.

Douro

Quinta do Crasto

Even among the breathtakingly beautiful and historic terraced vineyards of the Douro Valley, Quinta do Crasto is special. The estate celebrated its 400th birthday in 2015, and a demarcation stone marks its inclusion in the first geographical classification of the region's vineyards in the 18th century. Owned by the Roquette family, Crasto is comprised of 70 hectares of vines that cling precariously to their schistous perch above the river.

Casa da Passarella

Passarella is an award-winning gem of a winery located in the ancient and prestigious region of Portugal, the Dao. The flagship wines - Villa Oliviera with Encruzado for the white and Touriga Nacional for the red - are named after the man who founded the estate almost 150 years ago. Portugal-born Amand d'Oliveira made his fortune in Brazil and returned to his homeland, where he realised his dream; building a huge Brazilian-style house and planting 200 hectares of vines.

Artolas

Vidigal Wines is a small wine producing company, family managed, and located in the Leiria area in the Centre of Portugal. The company's origins date back to the beginning of the 20th Century, when it was founded by a Church Canon. This pair of wines have fantastic modern packaging at a cracking price.

Port and Madeira

Taylor's

For many, Taylor's is the archetypal Port house and its wines the quintessential Ports. Established over three centuries ago in 1692, Taylor's is one of the oldest of the founding Port houses. It is dedicated entirely to the production of Port wine and in particular to its finest styles. Above all, Taylor's is regarded as the benchmark for Vintage Port. Noted for their elegance and poise as well as for their restrained power and longevity, Taylor's Vintage Ports are blended from the finest wines of the firm's own quintas or estates, Vargellas, Terra Feita and Junco.

Graham's

The story of two families across three centuries. For almost two hundred years W & J Graham's has been an independent family business renowned for producing the finest Port wines. It was one of the first Port companies to invest in its own vineyards in Portugal's Douro Valley in 1890, and is now at the cutting edge of innovation in winemaking techniques. Today, five Symington cousins share responsibility for every aspect of the company and personally make the Graham's wines. They too have been involved with Port and the Douro for many generations, with ancestry dating back to the mid-17th century.

Fonseca

From the legendary 1840, Fonseca's first Vintage Port release, to the superb declared vintages of the last decade, the house has produced a succession of highly acclaimed wines even in the most adverse moments of history. This consistency derives not only from continuity of family involvement, and the knowledge and skill passed down from one generation to the next, but also a close link with the vineyard. The firm's three estates of Cruzeiro, Panascal and Santo António are the heart of the distinctive character of Fonseca's Vintage Ports.

Dow's

The name of Dow has long been associated with the finest Port from the vineyards of the Upper Douro Valley. Throughout the 20th Century and into the 21st, the Symington family has built on the legacy of the preceding Silva and Dow families. Generations of Symington winemakers have worked at the Dow's vineyards Quinta do Bomfim and Quinta da Senhora da Ribeira, creating from them Dow's superbly concentrated wines that are intense and tannic when young, maturing towards a superlative racy elegance with age and scented with violet and mint aromas. Dow's attractive and distinctive drier finish is the recognisable hallmark of the wines from this great Port house.

Cockburn's

Quinta dos Canais is the home of Cockburn's Port, in the remote Upper Douro Valley. The mountain vineyards hug the slopes of the ridge running down to the river, surrounded by rocky crags, rushing waterfalls, wild scrub and flowers. Canais has been the heart and soul of Cockburn's Vintage Ports for over a hundred years.

The domaine of 145 hectares which dominates the Pinhão Valley constitutes the heart and soul of Quinta do Noval. Since 1994, Quinta do Noval has replanted 100 hectares of the domaine with the noblest grape varieties of the Douro, adapting pruning and harvesting methods to suit each parcel. The parcels have been replanted in single grape variety plots, the varieties chosen to suit each individual parcel of land, according to three principal factors: the altitude, the exposition, and the type of planting of the vine.

Established in 1814, and known originally as Rutherford and Grant, Miles Madeira is one of the oldest and most respected producers of Madeira wine.

In 1856 Henry Price Miles left Wales with his mother as an infant for Madeira. Having worked as an apprentice since the age of 12 under the tutelage of James Rutherford, he acquired sound knowledge and experience of the workings of the Madeira trade. The difficult conditions after the Second World War led his son Cecil to negotiate their entry into the Madeira Wine Company.

When you think of European wine, Italy and France immediately spring to mind, but it's in the heartland of continental Europe that some of the most exciting bottles can be discovered.

Typically harsh winters, combined with summers that are warm and sunny, provide perfect conditions for an exciting array of flavours. It's little surprise, then, that Germany, Austria and Hungary are home to some of the most historic wine styles and producers in the world. Offering legendary sweet wines, piercing, mineral scented whites, and increasingly impressive reds, the price to quality ratio remains notably attractive.

With evidence that a vineyard was planted here more than 1,000 years ago, this is a country whose winemaking heritage is beyond question.

Few wine regions encapsulate terroir in a more expressive and evocative fashion than the Mosel, while the reliably warm summers of the Pfalz produce wines permeated with sunshine, steely Rieslings, and world class Pinot Noir or rather, in this case, Spätburgunder.

Rheingau

Weingut Leitz

With a unique selection of Rieslings, including a non-alcoholic offering, Weingut Leitz is located in Rudesheim, at the western end of the Rheingau. This family estate is run by Johannes Leitz, who took over what was then a 2.6-hectare property from his mother in 1985, aged just 21. In 2011, he was named "Winemaker of the Year" by Gault Millau, Germany's principal wine guide.

Mosel

Paulinshof

On the banks of the Mosel River, in the town of Kesten, lies a small, family-owned producer oozing with history: indeed, records suggest the St-Paulin estate was involved in vine growing as early as AD 936. Named as the top site in the Mosel in Napoleon's 1804 classification, the famed Brauneberger Juffer vineyard also has religious overtones:

'Juffer' means 'maidens' in the local Moselle dialect and, reputedly, the original vineyard was planted by an industrious trio of nuns.

Grüner Veltliner – Austria’s signature grape – has finally gained the recognition it deserves as producing wines suitable for any quality list.

The Wachau, with its steep terraces, marries minerality with opulence, whilst the softer hills of the Weinviertel give a fruit-forward and joyous expression. But Austria’s strength is also in its diversity; reds made from Zweigelt burst with cherry flavours, while adventurous producers are at the forefront of the natural wine movement.

Erich Machherndl

Weingut Machherndl, an 18 acre estate established in 1786, is run by eighth generation owner, Erich Machherndl, who believes in honest viticulture without compromise. His philosophy is simple; keep focused on tradition, believe in the vines – especially the 100-year-old vines – and do not become distracted by the status symbols of modern viticulture. His first goal is to produce exquisite wines that can be enjoyed and admired for many years.

Weinviertel

Pfaffl

R&A Pfaffl was founded in 1978 by Roman Pfaffl and his wife Adelheid. Located just north of Vienna in the Weinviertel, Austria’s premier winegrowing region, the winery was originally a working farm with less than two acres under vine. Over the years the winery has expanded and now encompasses more than 200 acres of sustainably farmed vineyards, planted with indigenous Austrian varieties including Grüner Veltliner and Zweigelt. In their short existence, not only have the Pfaffl wines been recognised for their excellence with international accolades, but the family too has been praised for helping to bring the world’s attention to Austria’s wine scene and their indigenous varieties.

Famously named 'vinum regnum, rex vinorum' ('wine of kings, king of wines') by Louis XV of France, Tokaj remains an unparalleled style which offers an unforgettable experience.

Sheltered by the Carpathian Mountains, and with the influence of the Bodrog and Tisza rivers, it is a dessert wine honed to perfection by centuries of history. In recent years, the region is also producing an exciting array of dry wines.

Tokaji

Patricius

While Tokaji is on the same latitude as the cool-climate Chablis region in France, the central European location of this Hungarian region means it enjoys a much warmer climate. It's because of this, along with the influence of the Tisza and Bodrog rivers, that results in the perfect conditions for noble rot. Patricius came to be after Hungarian exile, Deszö Kékessy, returned to Tokaji and acquired 150 hectares of vineyard after building a successful business in Switzerland. The attention to detail at Patricius is breathtaking: re-planting and even re-orienting rows of vines where necessary, and upholding admirable standards of perfection in both their vine-growing and winemaking endeavours. This dedication and passion pays off in spades, with wines that display exquisite elegance and class, complex fruit and honey flavours, minerality and rapier-like acidity.

Sauska

Christian and Andrea Sauska have been crafting highly admired Hungarian wines for nearly 20 years. In the famous Tokaji region they make exceptional dry white wines from both local and international grape varieties, as well as classic sweet aszú and late harvest wines. Traditional method sparkling wines are also made under the expert eye of Régis Camus of Rare Champagne, with a dedicated new cellar being constructed in Budapest. The second winery is in Villány, near Christian's hometown in the deep south on the border with Croatia. This winery produces red and rosé wines, and is home to a world-class restaurant. The family's relentless drive towards quality includes practising organic viticulture (non-certified) and employing biodynamic practises in the vineyard. The Sauska family are pushing the boundaries of quality wine in Hungary, proving its potential as a prime destination for fine wine lovers.

Kir-Yianni was founded in 1997 by Yiannis Boutaris, one of the leading figures in the Greek wine industry, when he left the Boutari Wine Group, the premium family wine company that his grandfather established in 1879. Today Stelios Boutaris, member of the fifth generation of winemakers, leads Kir-Yianni into the next phase of its history by dynamically exploiting the cornerstones of the Kir-Yianni philosophy: desire for innovation, respect for tradition and true knowledge of the wine, from the grape to the end consumer.

Santorini

Domaine Sigalas

Paris Sigalas came from a family of grape growers and winemakers, like many on Santorini. He grew up deeply familiar with Santorini's entirely unique pruning systems, developed to protect grapes from the howling Meltemi wind that tears across the island from May to October. But unlike others, Paris applied maths and technology to develop his own winemaking philosophy, best described as "the dynamic evolution of tradition". The Sigalas winery is on the northernmost tip of Santorini, on the plain of Oia. Sigalas owns a number of vineyards on the plain of Oia, but also has a series of strong partnerships with independent grape growers around the island. This allows them to capitalise on the enormous breadth of terroirs on the island, and also to stabilise supply in such a challenging climate from one year to the next to make Santorini's most lauded wines. Now owned by Stelios Boutaris, whose family founded Kir-Yianni on the Greek mainland, the precise and experienced winemaking elevates Assyrtiko, so often seen as a workhorse grape, to Chablis-esque levels of sophistication.

As visitors to the Roman temple of Bacchus in Baalbek will tell you, wine has been important to people here since ancient times.

Settlers have also shaped recent winemaking history, with French grape varieties dominant, including Cinsault, Carignan, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot.

Altitude is key: with vineyards commonly planted at 1000m, the heat is tempered, and harvests are typically later than some parts of the Languedoc.

The diversity and distinctiveness of this vast country's exciting winegrowing areas has long been championed as one of the keys to premium Australian wine.

Regions such as the Mornington Peninsula and Adelaide Hills are increasingly turning heads with their cool climate wines, while more established names such as Barossa, Eden Valley and Coonawarra are reaching new heights of excellence, as vineyards as well as winemaking techniques excel.

The huge diversity in both geography and climate means that South Australia can produce a vast range of styles.

Offering distinctive Rieslings from the cooler climes of the Eden and Clare Valleys, Shiraz with power and elegance from the Barossa Valley, formidable Cabernet Sauvignon from Coonawarra, and flinty Sauvignon Blanc from Adelaide Hills, this is the heartland of Australia's wine country.

Barossa Valley

Teusner Wines

When winemaker Kym Teusner overheard Barossa grape growers lamenting that they would have to rip out a plot of 85-year-old Grenache vines because they couldn't find a buyer to stump up the asking price, he knew he had to step in. At the time, he was still the winemaker at Torbreck, but he approached his brother-in-law, Michael Page, with a proposition to save as many of these vines as they could afford. The pair went into business, and produced their first vintage of The Joshua, a GSM blend, in 2002. The pair have gone from strength to strength, forging a reputation for working with Barossa growers to source old-vine fruit for elegant and complex wines.

In 2020, Teusner merged with Spanish-owned grower Terramoll, who have been investing in Barossa vines for over 20 years. This move gives Teusner access to 120 hectares of prime Barossa vines.

d'Arenberg

From once humble beginnings, family-owned d'Arenberg has grown to gain cult status amongst imbibers and judges alike for their enviable range of wines. A deft combination of winemaking tradition and vinous innovation might be a tall order for some, but it's one that d'Arenberg have taken in their stride as they continue to push industry boundaries, getting under the skin of each individual vineyard they own to get the best from their grapes.

Chaffey Bros. Wine Co.

This is the exciting new face of winemaking in Australia. Established in 2008 by brothers-in-law Daniel Chaffey Hartwig and Theo Engela, Chaffey Bros champion Riesling, Shiraz and Grenache from Eden and Barossa Valleys. Working in the realm of minimal intervention, artisan, small-batch wines, the pair prioritise experimentation and quality. ## Clare Valley

Pikes

Pikes is best known for their Riesling range, capitalising on the cool climate of the Clare Valley. The Traditionale Riesling is the biggest selling premium Riesling in the domestic market, and their no-frills, democratic approach to quality wine has stirred up a firm fan base. With Jamie Pike now at the helm, Pikes stands for family values backed up by a non-pretentious approach. Pikes are heavily involved in the Riesling Riot tastings across Australia, that has been shedding light on this undervalued and undersold grape variety since the early noughties.

Silver Lining Wine Co.

Legendary winemaker Marty Edwards left the family business, The Lane Vineyard, when he was diagnosed with Parkinson's in 2012. Determined not to be defined by this condition, Marty underwent a cutting-edge Deep Brain Stimulation operation in 2018. Despite the challenges he faces, Marty couldn't shake off his love of wine, so he created a new winery, "Silver Lining" and declared the first vintage in 2020. Part of the profits from sales of these wines will be donated to Parkinson's Disease research in Australia, making the story and purpose behind these wines every bit as captivating as their quality.

Coonawarra

Wynns

In 1891, Scottish pioneer began planting vines in this corner of Coonawarra, but it was only in 1951 that Melbourne-based wine merchants, Samuel and David Wynn bought and consolidated the vineyards, and established the Wynns estate. This estate was instrumental to the history of this region, now famed for its distinctive terra rossa, which is uniquely well-suited to Cabernet Sauvignon. With winemaker Sue Hodder at the helm for over 30 years, the estate has seen remarkable stability, enabling the delivery of long-term vision to rejuvenate the vines and reconstruct the vineyards.

Fowles Wine

When a company calls one of its wines 'Ladies Who Shoot Their Lunch,' you know you're experiencing a wine story that's just a bit, well, different. Matt Fowles – self-taught hunter, chef, winemaker and jazz trumpet player – was an unfulfilled lawyer before buying a winery out of administration and creating Fowles Wine. Food-friendly wines are Fowles' focus, with their products specifically designed to be consumed with game.

Yarra Valley

Rob Dolan

Rob Dolan grew up in Riverland South Australia with the family nickname, 'Riesling' because he loved enjoying a glass of wine with his mother. For a long while, wine was a passion as Rob pursued a career in Aussie Rules Football. Then with two premierships to his name, Rob hung up the boots and moved to Hunter Valley to earn his stripes as a winemaker. Moving to Yarra Ridge in the 1990s, Rob was inextricably linked to establishing the region's reputation with two highly successful brands, Sticks and Punt Road. This pioneering Midas touch earned him the new nickname 'Mr Yarra Ridge', reinforced by the accolade of James Halliday's 'Newcomer of the Year Award 2014'. Rob believes that the best wines are dependent on the best fruit, and has built relationships with the region's best growers to become a specialist in cool-climate Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Cabernet Sauvignon. Partnering with growers has also give Rob the flexibility to experiment with parcels of less typical varietals like Marsanne, Arneis, Sangiovese, Tempranillo and Barbera. No matter the grape, Rob's wines have a distinctively "less is more" approach.

New South Wales

Duxton Vineyards

Duxton Vineyards is based in the Southern Murray-Darling Basin which lies just inland behind Melbourne and Canberra, stretching across the New South Wales-South Australia border to Adelaide. The Murray-Darling Basin is recognised as one of the most fertile regions in Australia, producing a number of high-value crops alongside grapes, such as citrus fruit, nuts, stone fruits and cereals. Duxton Vineyards' wines are estate-produced, following a modern approach to viticulture and heavily influenced by respect for the environment. These are uncomplicated, lovingly made, great value wines.

Lying on the continent's east coast, New South Wales is Australia's second largest wine producing region and home to a variety of winemaking communities, each representing a diversity of unique terroirs and climates.

The most notable region within the state is the Hunter Valley, the birthplace of Australian wine, which is defined by its rich historical tapestry of vines and a past steeped in winemaking traditions. The warm and humid climate of the region is unique in Australian wine, allowing producers to offer iconic wine styles including delicate Semillon and earthy Shiraz.

McWilliams

Few have helped shape the evolution of the Australian wine industry like McWilliam's Wines. From humble beginnings on the outskirts of Corowa in 1877, the philosophy of putting quality fruit first has ensured that McWilliam's continues to be one of Australia's most popular, respected and iconic wineries. With six generations of winemakers and more than 140 years' experience, theirs are wines that tell the story of a family's long love affair with their craft.

Swinney

The Swinney property in Frankland River was established in 1922, providing high quality fruit to many of Western Australia's top wineries. With their heritage lying in grape growing, it was in the last decade that Matt Swinney, fourth generation, established a boutique range of wines from the very best plots within their estate. The family's winemaking philosophy focuses on terroir, and the wines Swinney produce represent the very best of modern Western Australian wine. They continue to push boundaries by establishing Grenache, Tempranillo and Mourvedre as bush vines, a rarity in this part of the country.

Corymbia

Inheriting the name of the most influential family in Western Australia's winemaking history comes with responsibilities that husband-and-wife duo, Rob and Genevieve Mann, don't take lightly. They speak openly about the legacy they are now a part of, and the unique, small-parcel wines they craft do them complete justice. Rob and Genevieve have more than 40 years of combined winemaking experience across Sicily, California, France and South Africa. Drawing on this broad range of influences, they have settled in the Swan Valley just outside of Perth.

Tasmania

Stargazer

Stargazer – brainchild of winemaker Samantha Connew – pays tribute to Abel Tasman, an explorer and navigator who spent much of his time gazing towards the heavens. Tasman, a Dutchman under the employ of the United East India Company, was the first European to sight Tasmania and the South Island of New Zealand, nineteen days later. Samantha, a gifted innovator in her own right, fell in love with the Island and the mystery surrounding it, and after only four vintages she has already gained five-star recognition from James Halliday, including the 2015 vintage.

A place of breath-taking, wind-whipped, rugged and unforgiving natural beauty, Tasmania offers Riesling, Chardonnay and Pinot Noir that express the purity of the island.

Typically bright and fresh, these wines have great structure and racy acidity.

Renowned for its Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc and Central Otago Pinot Noir, New Zealand also offers superb expressions of aromatic grape varieties.

Riesling, Pinot Gris, Viognier, Grüner Veltliner and Gewürztraminer all thrive in New Zealand's ideal climate.

Marlborough

Yealands Estate

In 2008, Peter Yealands was inspired by the rugged and breath-taking coastline in this corner of Awatere Valley, Marlborough. The area had previously been thought to be too windswept for grapes to thrive, and too uneven for efficient vineyard management. Peter embraced the challenge and established a cutting-edge winery that embraces its incredible location to offer a unique sense of place and hospitality. Yealands is the world's first winery to be certified Toit carbonzero since it was founded. The estate has now grown to over 1,000 hectares across the Awatere Valley, and today is in the hands of Natalie Christensen, named one of the World's Most Influential Women in Wine in 2018 by The Drinks Business.

Seresin Estate

Michael Seresin, born and educated in Wellington, left New Zealand for Europe in his early twenties to pursue a career as a cinematographer. Returning in 1992, Michael founded Seresin Estate in the maritime province of Marlborough. A "New World winery with an Old World approach," Seresin offers elegant expressions of Pinot Noir, feisty Sauvignon Blanc and graceful Chardonnay. The vineyard has been farmed organically from the start with biodynamic principles introduced soon after.

Frost Pocket

The Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc category has spearheaded New Zealand's fierce expansion into the UK, and accounts for a significant proportion of all New Zealand's sales. This is one of the few regional and varietal combinations from the New World that's become a 'must-list' alongside well-established classics, such as Chablis, Rioja and Chianti.

Cloudy Bay

Established in 1985, Cloudy Bay was one of the first five wine makers to venture into Marlborough. At the time, it was almost an unimaginable place to set-up a vineyard. But Cloudy Bay's founder - David Hohnen - was convinced of its potential to produce great wine and invested in the best land in the region. Since then, Marlborough has risen to become New Zealand's leading wine region, as well as one of the finest winemaking locations in the world. The winery was named after Cloudy Bay, a body of water explorer Captain James Cook came across during his voyage to New Zealand in 1770. His discovery coincided with flooding in the region, which washed large amounts of sediment into the sea. Noticing the water's opaque appearance, Cook cleverly christened the area Cloudy Bay.

Marlborough Grape Growers Cooperative

This cooperative specialises in making Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, one of the most in-demand wine categories in the world. The difference is that make entirely bespoke wines with flavour profiles suited to the needs of its buyers. Their wines live up to the tagline, "It's not ours; it's yours," and yet still maintain incredible levels of accountability. The cooperative is entirely owned by the growers who contribute to it, so all profits return to the vineyards and the hands that tend them. The cooperative engages consumers in this accountability by directing them to exact coordinates of each source vineyard through QR codes on the back of each bottle.

Squawking Magpie

The Magpies are the Hawke's Bay rugby union team. As much as the team has made the kleptomaniac bird synonymous with Hawke's Bay, winemaker Gavin Yortt set out to make his wines synonymous with the renowned sub-region of Gimblett Gravels. Production of Squawking Magpie is limited, and in line with Gavin's preference for viticultural excellence and single-vineyard expressions.

Since the first vintage in 1999, true to its name, Squawking Magpie has been scooping up Gold and Silver medals all over the world. This beady-eyed magpie has its eyes on the prize whether it's the New Zealand International Wine Awards, the International Wine Challenge, the New World Wine Awards or the Decanter World Wine Awards.

Urlar

If farming is in the blood of ex-pat Scot Angus Thomson – he represents the fifth generation of Thomsons to work the land – then so too are wines and spirits. Both grandfathers were in the whisky business, but Angus forged a new path when he sold his farm in Forres and set up shop in NZ. More than a decade later, the Thomsons have a 31-hectare vineyard and a range of organic wines shining with beautiful varietal expression. The mission here is sustainability, following organic and biodynamic principles in the vineyard. It's no surprise then that the estate's name, 'Urlar' means 'the earth' in Gaelic.

Waiheke Island

Man O' War

Man O' War is a stunning array of coastal hillsides with high cliffs and pristine beaches on the eastern end of Waiheke Island. Captain James Cook first sighted the rows of magnificent Kauri trees on this coastline on his first voyage around the islands of New Zealand, and noted they'd make ideal masts for the Navy's Man O' War battleships, hence the land gained its name. Today, Man O' War is made up of 150 acres of vines planted in 76 individual hillside blocks, each with a distinct soil profile and microclimate. Winemaker Duncan McTavish ensures each small parcel of vines are carefully tended and harvested by hand, then vinified separately, fusing classic Old World techniques with innovative New World ideas to give his wines great intensity, depth, and personality.

Carrick Winery

It's been more than 25 years since Steve and Barbara Green established the first of Carrick's vineyard plants on the Cainmuir terraces at Bannockburn in Central Otago. What was, at the time, a tangle of wild thyme and briar roses, has now evolved into one of the region's most successful producers. Pinot Noir is the trump care here - richly coloured, immensely aromatic and full of cherry and plum fruit - but don't underestimate Carrick's characterful Chardonnay, which has enviable fruit purity.

MAN Family Vineyards

The story behind MAN Family Wines started as a simple idea, with its founders, Jose, Tyrrel and Philip resolving to make wines that they would actually want to buy and drink. To keep the peace over the amount of time they foresaw spending making this vision a reality, the winery was named with the first initials of the founders' three wives; Marie, Anette and Nicky. Today, MAN Family are champions of unirrigated, quality wines, with great packaging.

After 12 long years working at Boschendal Wineries, Thinus Krüger decided it was time to be his own boss. Part of a new-wave generation of young winemakers in South Africa, Thinus does not limit his talents to just one part of the country. He travels all regions, intent on the quest to discover uncharted areas with the best quality grapes. With Pinotage and Chenin from Citrusdal Mountain, Chardonnay from Robertson, and Shiraz from Swartland, the wines make up an eclectic snapshot of the best of South Africa, and all in the bold, intense style that Krüger has perfected along the way.

The JourneyMaker

Produced by Riebeeck Cellars in Riebeeck Kasteel in the heart of the Swartland region in South Africa. Sheltered by the Kasteelberg Mountain, the vineyards have a Mediterranean climate; creating ideal conditions for producing wines full of flavour. Riebeeck cellars have been making wines since 1941, cellar Master Zakkie Bester has planted a range of varieties that he believes will give a very clear indication of the wonderful quality which can come out of the Swartland wine region. The excellent terroir is complemented by modern viticulture techniques, only free-run juice from the finest grapes are used to make crisp, well made wines that are true to type with focussed fruit and great purity.

Ken Forrester Wines

Without the efforts of industrious men like Ken Forrester, South African Chenin Blanc might be scarcely more than a footnote to the country's winemaking history – a workhorse grape, producing vast amounts of unmemorable white wine. Thankfully, this Zambia-born former restaurateur saw beyond the grape's obvious quaffability, going on to produce wines such as The FMC that have not only elevated the varietal to world renown, but resulted in their creator being bestowed the moniker 'Mr Chenin.'

Thelema Mountain Vineyards

Cabernet may be their hero, but Thelema's origins owe more to the wines of Burgundy than Bordeaux; it was a bottle of Puligny-Montrachet that acted as the catalyst for Gyles Webb to abandon an accountancy career for winemaking. These days Gyles is Cellar Master, with the talented Rudi Schultz responsible for the winemaking. However, the philosophy remains true to Gyles' original vision, centred on the principle of what he calls 'benign neglect' – minimal fining and filtration, and no use of commercial yeasts in the red wines.

Morgenster

New and Old Worlds meet at Morgenster. The estate was bought by Giulio Bertrand in 1992, who held a vision of making the best Bordeaux-style wine outside France. Requisite shale soils, cool breezes and proximity to the Atlantic provided ideal growing conditions, while Château Cheval Blanc's Pierre Lurton added expertise and experience for the winemaking. The result is the perfect marriage of South African and French know-how. Only a portion of each vintage is released on launch, with the rest kept, evaluated bi-yearly and released in batches, allowing customers access to several vintages of the same wine.

Kleinood

The de Villiers family has left deep footprints in the history of the South African wine industry through the centuries, and Kleinood and the Tamboerskloof wines are no exception. The French Huguenot, Jacob de Villiers, bought the wine farm Boschendal between Stellenbosch and Franschhoek, after immigrating to the Cape of Good Hope in 1688. In the year 2000 Gerard de Villiers, a direct descendant of Jacob, and his wife, Libby, found the piece of land that stole their hearts – complete with mountains, river and a pristine tract of indigenous forest. Tamboerskloof is once again an integral part of the de Villiers family history as well as that of Cape Town and the Boland. The name Tamboerskloof means the valley (kloof) of the drums (tamboer).

Devon Valley

Martin Meinert

Established by Martin Meinert, the man involved in the creation of some of South Africa's finest wines of the past two decades, comes this special and personal family project. Devon Crest Vineyard – an apt name for an estate sitting on the south-facing ridge of the Devon Valley with distant views of False Bay – is a more decorative title than the one the vineyard had when the Meinerts bought it in 1987: Remainder of Farm 78, Division of Stellenbosch. This is traditionally red wine country, expressed through wines such as Synchronicity's blend of Cabernet, Merlot and bush-vine Pinotage, so it might come as a surprise to find a white Merlot, called 'The Italian Job', among their impressive selection.

Elgin

Sutherland

With Thelema, Gyles Webb had warm-climate wines, so in contrast his next venture, Sutherland Vineyards, focused on cool-climate wines. Just nine kilometres from the Indian Ocean and at up to 250m above sea level, aromatic white wines and Pinot Noir are fast developing a reputation for quality. When purchased in 2002, the Sutherland estate – like so much of the Elgin Valley – was apple-growing country, but the 100-hectare property was soon home to Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay, with Riesling, Viognier and Pinot Noir following soon after.

Brazil is South America's third largest producer of wine, but has flown under the radar because much of its produce is destined for domestic consumption. Brazil's economy grew significantly in the 1990s, and the country's growing class of businesspeople developed an appetite for imported fine wine. Seeing an opportunity, local winemakers responded by developing a competitive domestic offering.

Vale dos Vinhedos (meaning "valley of the vineyards") was first settled in the 1870s by Italian immigrants. Italian heritage still runs deep; for example, Venetian dialects are still used locally today. Vale dos Vinhedos was the first appellation recognised in Brazil, in 2002. It now covers just over 8,000 hectares at an average altitude of 700m.

Vale dos Vinhedos

Casa Valduga

In 1875, the first generation of the Valduga family emigrated from Northern Italy to Brazil. They soon began cultivating vines in what is known today as Vale dos Vinhedos, meaning 'The Valley of Vineyards'. As one of the oldest wineries in Brazil, Casa Valduga is still a family business after six generations.

Sunny, dry summers, the twin cooling influences of the Pacific's Humboldt Current and the lofty Andes, and plentiful water thanks to mountain snowmelt means the term 'viticultural paradise' really does apply here.

Chilean winemakers are increasingly choosing to push boundaries, embracing experimentation and exploring more marginal conditions in exciting regions such as Leyda and Elqui, while retaining sight of the quality offered by established Central Valley enclaves including Colchagua and Maipo.

Isla de Maipo

De Martino

De Martino was the first winery to label a wine as a single varietal Carménère, and also the first winery to export Carménère from Chile. Having won the "Winery of the Year" accolade on three separate occasions, De Martino very much sets the tone worldwide for the quality that Chilean wine can achieve.

With three generations of expertise under their belts, De Martino isn't interested in resting on its laurels. In 2011, winemaker Marcelo Retamal made a concerted push to modernise the style of his portfolio. Tapping into global trends for picking earlier, using only indigenous yeast and avoiding new oak, the De Martino house style has evolved towards elegance and purer fruit expression.

Leyda Valley

Viña Leyda

Casablanca Valley might represent Chile's first intrepid steps into cool-climate production, but it's Leyda that took a series of determined, confident strides. Just 14km from the vast Pacific Ocean, the Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Syrah planted here express a crispness, minerality and fine-boned structure not found elsewhere in Chile's viticultural paradise. Under the direction of winemaker Viviana Navarrete, Leyda's pioneering spirit has continued with single vineyards, along with successful experimentation in the way of different clones and soil types. One of her most exciting endeavours is a single vineyard Lot 4 Sauvignon Blanc produced from a Sancerre clone – the result which is wonderfully elegant and mineral – as a relation of Sancerre should be, with added richness and fine acidity.

Casablanca Valley

Viñamar

Located in the high quality Casablanca Valley and within close proximity to the Pacific Ocean, the vineyards are situated in several exceptional sites. In the scorching Chilean summer, the vines are cooled by ocean breezes and rolling mists that funnel up the valley. These ideal conditions allow grapes to ripen slowly and gently - creating intense yet delicate flavours and lovely fresh acidity.

Viña San Pedro

In 1865, the Correa brothers set up Viña San Pedro with the intention of spearheading the introduction of Old World grape varieties to the Curicó Valley. Today, this is one of Chile's most prominent wineries and has continued live up to their heritage by embarking on a joint venture in 2002 to create fine wines. In partnership with Château Dassault in Saint-Émilion, they are based in the foothills of the Andes, where they focus on production of fine wines from Altair and Sideral.

Elqui Valley

Viña Falernia

If your acquaintance with the vineyards of Chile doesn't extend beyond Maipo, Rapel and Colchagua, the Elqui Valley might come as a bit of a shock. First of all, this northern enclave of earth tremors and UFO-spotting really does resemble a valley, running east to west and with a growing population of vines drawing on the vital irrigation of the Elqui River (there's typically less than three inches of rainfall a year in this arid region).

At a time when Elqui was better known for distilling Pisco and for growing other fruit, Falernia was a true pioneer, led by cousins Aldo Olivier Gramola (who also makes Pisco) and Trentino winemaker Giorgio Flessati.

This Italian-inspired revolution has seen the planting of a 320-hectare estate on four sites along the valley, from the sometimes fog-shrouded, low-altitude area near the Pacific right up to more than 2,000 metres above sea level – some of the highest altitude vineyards on earth.

This diversity of microclimates and soil types allows for everything from Sauvignon Blanc to Syrah to thrive here, expressing a purity of fruit and freshness that is the envy of many vineyards further south.

New last year from Falernia were a Riesling and a Malbec, the latter benefiting from Elqui's combination of unrivalled sunny weather to concentrate fruit, and cool nights to preserve elegance and finesse.

Laña

In response to the growing demand for good value Chilean Sauvignon and Merlot we introduced the Laña range a couple of years ago. The Sauvignon is dry and delicately aromatic, and the Merlot is soft and supple. The wines are smartly packaged and offer tremendous value for money. Laña, Primera Luz and Los Tortolitos are all produced by Viñedos Puertas, a family-run business founded in 1950. The vineyard is comprised of 80 hectares of fields irrigated by water flowing down from the Andes Mountains, and a one-million-litre capacity winery known as El Milagro, located at the heart of the Curico Valley. The wines embody the character of the region, and display brilliant freshness. On the back of a growing market demand for good value Chilean Sauvignon Blanc and Merlot, we're pleased to be able to welcome Los Tortolitos range into our portfolio.

Santa Ana

The story of Santa Ana is defined by constant evolution and development, from the winery's foundation by Italian émigré and winemaking pioneer Luis Tirasso in 1891, to the company's leadership in the Argentinian market in the late 1970s, and its exploration of overseas destinations in the years since. Today, its wines are sold in more than 50 countries around the world, and the secret of Santa Ana's success lies firmly in the vineyards. Esteemed winemaker Rodolfo 'Opi' Sadler has access to an enviable array of quality fruit sourced from all over Mendoza.

Susana Balbo

With a career of over 40 years, Susana Balbo is the most renowned female winemaker of Argentina. A pioneer in Argentinian wine exports and an ambassador of our viticulture to the world, she has become a symbol and a key figure in both the Argentina and the world wine scene.

Susana's innovative spirit pushes her to continuously develop wines of unique character and quality. Her winery's portfolio includes Susana Balbo Signature, Crios, Nosotros and BenMarco ranges.

Crios

Crios wines were created by Susana Balbo as a demonstration of love and affection towards her children, José and Ana, who both work side by side with her at the family winery. These young, fresh wines enhance the power of hands, valuable tools that allow us to create or to care for our loved ones.

El Esteco

Among the Calchaqui Valley's lush vegetation, rivers and rocky mountains, there emerges, unexpectedly, a stretch of desert. At an altitude of 1,800 metres, with its radiant sunshine and ideal temperature ranging from hot days to cool nights, the environment is perfect for vine growing. And it is here, in the heart of this unique valley where El Esteco stands. French immigrants David and Salvador Michel founded the winery in 1892, taking advantage of this special region to produce distinctive and elegant high-end wines, with great concentration of colour, deep aromas and well-defined flavours.

If Rio Negro is a relative newcomer to many people's wine repertoires, Humberto Canale has experience on its side. The winery was established way back in 1909, taking its name from its founder, the pioneering engineer who did so much to develop Patagonian agriculture. More than 100 vintages and four generations later, Guillermo Barzi Canale is at the helm, overseeing a range of elegant wines that run the gamut from Pinot Noir to Malbec and Cabernet Franc, not forgetting a pair of excellent value white and red blends.

Winemaking in the USA has never been more exciting, and with producers including Ste. Michelle Wine Estates, Share a Splash and Bogle, we are proud to offer one of the most diverse American portfolios in the UK.

North America offers wines of great balance and value, from sun-bathed Sonoma to wind-whipped Monterey, and the cooler parts of Sacramento's Delta region to the rich depths of Paso Robles reds. New wines from the cooler climes of Washington State and the iconic Napa Valley also add depth and excitement to the portfolio.

The largest, best known and most diverse winemaking region in the United States of America, it's not hard to see why California inspires so much interest.

Varying from abundant sunshine to cool coastal air, a hugely diverse range of climates contributes to wines of outstanding quality that are largely characterised by ripe, fruity flavours and an abundance of oak.

Napa Valley

Stag's Leap Wine Cellars

This is one of the undisputed icons of the Napa Valley. Just three years after the winery was founded, in 1973 their Cabernet won the famous Judgement of Paris tasting, beating first and second growth Bordeaux. Since then they have become one of the most compelling and sought-after wine producers in the world. The winery is located in the Stag's Leap District, a small sub-region in the south-eastern Napa Valley known for producing particularly elegant, age-worthy wines.

Louis M Martini

Louis M. Martini is an iconic Napa Valley winery that has crafted world-class Cabernet Sauvignon since 1933, relying on the simple premise that the best grapes make the best wines. Pioneering founder Louis M. Martini played an integral role in establishing Napa Valley as one of the world's premier winegrowing regions. Today, the winery continues this winemaking tradition with a range of celebrated Cabernet Sauvignon wines from Napa and Sonoma.

Patz & Hall

Established in 1988, Patz & Hall makes some of the New World's most stirring and sought-after single-vineyard Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Its founders Donald Patz, James Hall, Anne Moses and Heather Patz, created one of California's most highly-regarded wineries, becoming one of the first producers to bring a celebrated portfolio of single-vineyard wines to a wider audience. The core philosophy is to work with only the finest vineyards in California, farmed by the greatest growers. To achieve this, winemaker James Hall has developed close personal and long-term relationships with legendary growers such as Larry Hyde, the Dutton family and Bill Price. This dedication has given Patz & Hall unprecedented access to the most sought-after sites, blocks and clones across California's finest winegrowing regions. James Hall has made every Patz & Hall wine since 1988, crafting them all in the state-of-the-art winery that he designed himself. James and his team apply both traditional and cutting-edge techniques, including the custom barrel programme where barrels are seasoned for three years by cooperages in the heart of Burgundy. The Chardonnay is fermented with indigenous yeasts whilst the Pinot Noir sees a mix of native and cultured yeast, always with a proportion of whole-bunch pressing.

Share A Splash

Share a Splash wine co. (formerly Cannonball Wine Company) was established by Yoav Gilat in 2006, and since then has grown from a modest Cabernet producer to a solid industry player. Their mission is to produce wines that offer quality, character and approachability that surpass expectations for the price, and always deliver a serious splash! Share a Splash wine co. winemaker Ondine Chattan embodies the company's uncomplicated approach to wine: 'I am inspired by the purity of flavors in the grape varieties themselves and endeavor to present those flavors in various ways – be it bold and direct – no translation needed, or subtle and layered – unfolding slowly.' Share a Splash wine co. embraces the belief that wine, like life, is best enjoyed when shared.

Bonny Doon Vineyard

Randall Grahm is the daring, pioneering brains behind Bonny Doon. Since he set up the winery in 1983, he has been the driving force behind the cult craze for transposing Rhône varietals to the USA's West Coast, spotting the similarities between the Mediterranean climate and terroirs. A by-now iconic front cover of The Wine Spectator cemented Randall's reputation when it featured him in fancy dress as The Lone Ranger with the headline, "The Rhône Ranger: Maverick Californian".

No true maverick can bear to stand still for long, so Randall recently rejigged his entire range and has consolidated it to just four wines. The philosophy is stylish, elegant, accessible, great value and fun. Randall keeps his link to the Rhône Valley alive with his branding: the UFO on the label of Le Cigare Volant is a nod to the notorious law in Châteauneuf-du-Pape outlawing UFOs.

Orin Swift

The story of Orin Swift Cellars dates back to 1995, when on a lark, David Swift Phinney travelled to Florence for a study semester and quickly fell in love with wine. Three years later, Phinney started his own venture with just two tonnes of Zinfandel and an insatiable passion for his craft. What started as a tiny production project has now grown into an empire of wines distributed across the world, with Phinney establishing himself as one of the most influential and innovative winemakers in California.

West Coast Swing

West Coast Swing is the official state dance of California and can be danced to almost any music; it's all about matching rhythm, melody and mood, and the same can be said for the delicious White Zinfandel. This a wine bursting with vibrant ripe peach, mango and melon aromas, while a fresh acidity balances the sweetness of this much-loved classic.

With the first vines planted here in the early 1800s, at least 40% of the state's vineyards were planted in the last decade alone.

The winemakers who have chosen to plant here are still experimenting with grape varieties and vineyard sites. The warm, dry climate means that bold and red grapes such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Syrah are key players here.

Washington State

Château Ste. Michelle

Château Ste. Michelle's pioneered vinifera grape growing in Washington State, directly challenging the previous conception that great American wine could only come from California. Since 1967, the winery has been producing top class European varietal wines under the Château Ste. Michelle label, all of which highlight the quality, style and expression of their Washington State vineyards. The winery combines an ongoing pursuit of innovation – particularly evident in their many joint ventures.

14 Hands

14 Hands wines are inspired by the unbridled spirit of the wild horses that once freely roamed eastern Washington. Measuring just fourteen hands tall — a "hand" equivalent to the width of one's palm — these tenacious little horses would travel down from the hills every day to drink from the mighty Columbia River and graze along the riverbank, then retreat back to cool off at night. Washington's wild horses have become living symbols of the pioneer spirit of the American West.

Oregon

Omero

If Napa is the Bordeaux of California, then Oregon is the Burgundy. There are obvious climatic and varietal parallels, but Omero Cellars sees things slightly differently.

This family-owned and operated winery, set in Ribbon Ridge, the smallest AVA of the Willamette Valley, is quick to point out that it's not aiming to replicate the Côte d'Or, but to champion Oregon's unique soils, climate, fruit – and most importantly people. It's an individuality that is apparent in the Omero wines, from Pinot Noir to Chardonnay. Winemaker and biodynamics specialist Chad Stock's Pinot Noirs are the product of an attention to detail that borders on obsession, from the tailoring of Burgundy clones to Oregon terroir, to his treatment of prized yeast cultures as if they were sourdough.

Its cool climate, high-quality Pinot Noir has been likened to Burgundy in terms of quality, and due to popularity, this grape is planted across 60% of the region.

Long summers which are warm and dry, combined with cool evenings that preserve acidity, help produce the elegant and distinctly ripe character that Oregon wines have become known for.

Peller Family Estates

When Hungarian-born Andrew Peller arrived in Canada in 1927, his dream was to persuade his new country to learn to love and appreciate fine wine as much as his fellow Europeans. After numerous setbacks and involvements in the brewing and newspaper industries – and with the financial help of his son Joe, by now a doctor – Peller Family Estates was finally born in 1969.

The Pellers are Icewine pioneers, being among the first families to explore the possibilities of this unique Canadian style of wine. But they went further, planting their Niagara Peninsula vineyards closer to Lake Ontario in an effort to make their Icewine fresher and more food-friendly.

Producing Icewine is an extraordinarily laborious process, involving the thawing and freezing of grapes on numerous occasions, picking them at the perfect moment and, in the winery, a long, slow pressing during which the winery workers have been known to stage a few games of hockey to pass the time.

The wines that result – uniquely unctuous but with a piercing streak of lip-smacking freshness – are delicious on their own, but acquire new dimensions alongside food. A trait best showcased by Peller's in-house chef, Jason Parsons, aka 'the Willy Wonka of Icewine.'

Eye-widening dishes include suckling pig marinated in Icewine, candy floss jelly made with Icewine – and a 'blue ice dessert' which involves soaking a wheel of Québec blue cheese in six litres of Icewine for two weeks before serving. Wow.

One of the great sweet wines of the world alongside Sauternes, Tokaj and Vin de Constance; Canadian Icewine is a remarkable style, born on the Niagara Peninsula between Lake Ontario and Lake Erie and based on the toughest grape harvest (late December, -10°C).

Perfected by generations of growers into a divine combination of luscious sweetness, biting acidity and dazzling purity of fruit; nectar is the tasting note that springs most readily to mind here.

Château Léoube

Lord and Lady Bamford, a pioneering family driving positive sustainable change in the UK, acquired the 17th century Château in 1997, marking a new beginning for Léoube.

The family vision was to bring their passion and their experience for sustainability and organics to fine winemaking. The responsibility of expanding the vineyards and improving quality has been given to Romain Ott, fourth generation winemaker of the Ott dynasty. A policy of zero use of pesticides and chemicals is crucial to preserving biodiversity and therefore taking care of wildlife, leading to a strengthened and stable ecosystem. Certified Organic, the Léoube estate is an entirely protected environment where natural wet areas support and develop biodiversity. All the waste materials are carefully recycled or upcycled.

Planeta

In Planeta's early years, expertise came from a surprising source: Australia. The winemaker brought in by Diego Planeta was an Italian, Carlo Corino, who had soaked up the latest warm-climate winemaking secrets during a stint in New South Wales. Ever since, Planeta has adopted world-leading winemaking techniques to capture the perfume and freshness of Sicily in their wines. The early success of their now cult-status Chardonnay gave Planeta the platform to introduce a few of the region's indigenous grape varieties to the winemaking world. Today, Planeta is as revered for its role in promoting Grecanico and Nero d'Avola wines as it is for the signature Chardonnay.

Stellenbosch

Morgenster

New and Old Worlds meet at Morgenster. The estate was bought by Giulio Bertrand in 1992, who held a vision of making the best Bordeaux-style wine outside France. Requisite shale soils, cool breezes and proximity to the Atlantic provided ideal growing conditions, while Château Cheval Blanc's Pierre Lurton added expertise and experience for the winemaking. The result is the perfect marriage of South African and French know-how. Only a portion of each vintage is released on launch, with the rest kept, evaluated bi-yearly and released in batches, allowing customers access to several vintages of the same wine.
